Who is Sitting at Your Table?

ICE-BREAKER: What is your favorite memory of sitting around a table?

Who is sitting at the table of influence in your life? Who should be there? Who is missing? Is there anyone who should be asked to leave?

What voices at the table need to be turned up?

Are there voices that need to be turned down or silenced altogether?

When it comes to the place of influence in your life, whose influence do you feel the most? How did they come to occupy the place they hold at your table?

How has the devil shown up in your life, or has he? If he did, what lies did he speak?

Pastor Steve said, "When we believe satan's lies we miss out on God's truth." Where has this been true in your life? What did you do to change it?

READ: "You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies." - Psalm 23:4a (NIV)

How has the imagery of this Psalm changed your perspective regarding the voices that speak into your life?

How does the image of the Lord preparing a table for two shape your perception of your relationship with God?

Has the enemy ever whispered lies in your ear? If so, what were they? Did you believe his lies? Have you repeated them?

Which of the four lies, mentioned in Sunday's message, are easiest for you to believe?

How can we thank the Lord for the many blessings He has given us?
