

Walk Thru Biographical Sketch

DONNA CARLSON

Short Bio:

Donna is a retired Ambassador/Trainer of Cultural Development for Chick-fil-A, having lived for nearly 20 years in the Chicagoland, IL area; She is an editor; seminar administrator and teacher presently living in Omaha, Nebraska. She has been married to her husband, Greg, for 50 years and is the mother of three adult sons; and grandmother to two grandsons.

She has taught the Walk Thru the Bible Kids in the Book since 1996 at churches, Christian schools, summer camps and retreats, International Schools in China and Army Base facilities including one in South Korea. Kids will be involved with costumes and props as this former drama coach and music teacher of 20 years tells the Bible stories.

More Details:

Donna received Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord when she was seven years old as her mother shared Jesus with her during a Kansas tornado. She had the blessing of growing up in a committed Christian home where her entire family was very involved in their local church.

Donna graduated from Grace University, Omaha, Nebraska, with a Bachelor's degree in Religious/Christian Education and music.

She has been a women's Bible study leader and teacher and enjoys mentoring young women. She currently is a seminar speaker and teacher having moved back to the Omaha area, after living in Chicagoland for nearly 20 years.

Next to her relationship with the Lord, her highest priority is her family. She has been a wife to Greg for 50 years and they are the parents of three adult sons and a new grandmother to 2 grandsons.

Some of her biggest risks were bungee jumping and skydiving for significant birthday celebrations. Recently, she went hiking on a glacier in Alaska. In her free time, Donna enjoys reading, being a spectator to all sports and attending drama productions.
