CALL TO PRAYER

MISSIONS PRAYER FOCUS

Ben and Kristin Choitz—Serving with International Teams, leaving for Zambia on Tuesday, February 13. Ben and Kristin have 3 daughters (2 biological and 1 waiting in Zambia) and a son, Agness, 22, who is looking forward to their arrival next week. Brianne, 21, lives in Moline, IL, Kate, 18, attends UW Whitewater, and Carter, 6, is looking forward to the adventure of Zambia. They are starting an Integrated Community Transformation team, transforming lives and communities by the power of God in Chongwe, Zambia. They have a burden for ministry to vulnerable and prostituted women, widows, marriages, and men to experience recovery, restoration, and the hope that can only be found in Jesus Christ.

Praises!

- For the God-given grace, mercy, strength, and perseverance to walk this journey with Him
- That God is showing them what is next in Zambia and for the connections He is making in Chongwe for them
- For the lives that are being transformed in Chongwe!
- For the ways that God is continuing to grow them through time of totally trusting and obeying Him and walking in the faith that He is giving them so abundantly

Prayer:

- That God will continue to provide for their needs during this very expensive move
- Agness (for what God has next for her), Brianne (in Moline), Kate (at Whitewater), and Carter (that he would transition well)
- For their partners in Zambia, Pastor Luke and Noriah, that they may be blessed for their obedience and sacrifice for the kingdom
- For those who have given their lives to Jesus over the past few trips (especially Angela), for them to learn about, experience, and know God more deeply as they grow and connect with them and their partners on the ground

WORLD VISION

World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization dedicated to working with children, families, and their communities worldwide to reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty and injustice. We have a team that is forming in the Lake Geneva area that is going to train for a marathon and change the lives of people through access to clean water. We think your life will be changed in the process. They will train together. They will provide you with coaching, training plans, support, AND the best part is - 80% of the people who join their team each year are non-runners! To find out more about running with them contact: aweirich@worldvision.org.

Living in the In-Betweens

Acts 1:12-26

All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer. Acts. 1:14a

1) Prayer

Is my life a life devoted to prayer?

2) Prophecy

In the times of upheaval, do I trust in the promises of God?

3) Picking

When an important decision is made, do I submit to God-given authority?

So what? As I think about what we studied here today, how am I able to answer this question: In the in-betweens of my life, am I devoting myself to prayer, trusting in God, and submitting to His will in my life?

Small Group Questions

1) Prayer

The disciples came down from Mount Olivet and immediately gathered to pray. What were they praying for? Acts 1:7-8 might give a clue. Notice the list of names in verses 13 and 14. Why do you think Luke listed these names and in the order they are listed?

2) Prophecy

Peter is leading a meeting of 120 people. The meeting starts with addressing the prophecies in Scripture around the death of Judas. Why is this topic the first to be addressed in the meeting? Notice how Peter used prophecy in the Psalms to show that the betrayal and death of Judas was not a mistake. What comfort do these fulfilled prophecies give to the group?

3) Picking

Peter now moves to the next order of business to find a replacement for Judas. What are the criteria for Judas's replacement? Why are these requirements important? Read the prayer in verse 24. What stands out to you in that prayer? Read Exodus 28:30. What can we learn from the apostles casting lots for the replacement of Judas?

Next week: Acts 2:1-13
