

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?
- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?
- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

READ Psalm 78. This Psalm gives a historical glance at the relationship between God and the nation of Israel, where the nation perpetually failed, and how God provided a way for them through “David His servant” (v.70). As you look back upon your life, and see your own failures, how do you see God’s hand drawing you back to Himself? As you see moments of trust in God, do you see how He brought you there? How does reflecting back upon these past moments help assure you of His future guidance and faithfulness?

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

1. What is one thing that you wish you would have known about life, before entering adulthood?
2. What is something you've attempted that seemed initially way beyond your abilities, but were eventually able to do?

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Pastor Jason shared that mountain moving faith is always aligned with the will of God, as opposed to faith in our own strength and abilities, or even our personal hopes and desires. Read John 15:1-11. As we walk in faith before God, how does remaining (abiding) in Christ help us to be established in this type of faith?

READ SCRIPTURE

READ Matthew 17:14-23

1. How does this passage highlight God's presence in our world?
2. What does this passage say about our broken human condition?
3. How does this passage call me to make change in my life?

OCTOBER 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #5

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Mark 9:14-29 & Luke 9:37-43. Mark and Luke record the same event as Matthew, but each author emphasizes different details. What do Mark and Luke want us to understand about this encounter?

- How do these perspectives help us better understand Matthew's emphasis?

2. READ Matthew 10:1, 5-8, & 17:16-17. Jesus had previously given the disciples authority to drive out demons, yet here in ch.17, they were unable to help this boy. Why do you think they struggled to do what Jesus had empowered them to do?

- READ Mark 6:7-13. Mark tells us the disciples had successfully driven out demons earlier. What might explain the difference between their success and failure?

- What do these passages teach us about the relationship between the authority Christ gives us and our need to depend on Him?

3. READ Matthew 14:28-31, 17:19-21. In Matthew 14, Peter has little faith, yet Jesus tenderly reaches out and saves him. In Matthew 17, Jesus rebukes His disciples for their little faith when they are unable to drive out a demon. What do these moments teach us about faith and who we place it? Why is this important for us today?

- READ Philippians 4:11-13, Ephesians 3:20-21. In light of what Matthew teaches us about Christ's authority, what do Paul's words teach us about depending on Christ and trusting God's power at work within us? What might that look like in our daily rhythms and interactions?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Deuteronomy 32:4-5, 19-22, Matthew 17:17, Philippians 2:14-15. Moses describes a people who have forgotten the faithfulness of their God. Jesus confronts a generation marked by unbelief. Paul calls God's people to live as shining stars in a darkened world. As we are called to "shine" our faith in this darkened world, what mountains have you seen God move? What mountains remain? Where have you seen God at work in and through you?
