LOVE God because of what we learned

MAKE PLAY DOUGH ANIMALS

Give each child some play dough. Place animal-shaped cookie cutters within reach of children. Demonstrate flattening the play dough and pressing the cutter down to create an animal. Review the Bible story while children work. Ask them to tell about their animal creations and why they chose to make that animal. Remind children that God used the vision to help Peter understand that Jesus is for everyone.

SAY In Bible times, people who were from different places did not always talk to one another or share the same beliefs about God. God helped Peter understand that Jesus wants everyone to know about Him. Because Peter shared the good news about Jesus with Cornelius, Cornelius and his family and friends believed and were baptized.

RAISE AND LOWER A SHEET FULL OF ANIMALS

Gather children around a sheet or parachute filled with all sorts of stuffed animals. If possible, toss in a few shown in the Bible story picture. Ask children to name the animals they see as they are gathering. Work together to raise the sheet off the ground and lower it again without spilling any animals on the ground. Talk about the story. Remind children Peter saw the vision three times. Repeat the action of lifting and lowering the sheet three times.

SAY Seter's vision was interesting, wasn't it? Three times he saw the sheet filled with all different types of animals. God used the vision to explain to Peter that all people needed to know about Jesus. God wanted Peter to know that Jesus is for all people everywhere.

MAKE A HOLDING HANDS PICTURE

Give each child a glue stick and a series of paper people die cuts (like paper dolls) cut in various skin tones. Demonstrate how to glue the hands of the people together to create a line of people holding hands. Allow children to decorate the cutouts. Then give children a large sheet of construction paper labeled God Loves All People for them to glue their line of people onto.

SAY God loves everyone in the world. That is why Jesus came to die on the cross and be raised to life again. God wants everyone in the world to know about Jesus and His love for them. God sent Peter to tell Cornelius and his family about Jesus. Peter learned that Jesus is for everyone.
