

PERSONAL REFLECTION QUESTION:

READ Galatians 5:16-26. These verses describe spiritual fruit as something that the Spirit grows in us, not something we can force. According to this passage, what conditions allow the Spirit to produce fruit in a believer's life? What is the connection between Paul's words here, and Jesus' Beatitudes? Which fruit or Beatitude do you see most clearly in your own life right now? Which ones do you need to seek the Spirit's help?

JANUARY 25-31, 2026 | WEEK #2

DIGGING DEEPER

1. READ Matthew 4:23-25. Matthew sets the stage for, "the Sermon on the Mount," where people from everywhere have shown up. In this relatively short time of Jesus' ministry, how and why do you think His message spread as quickly as it did?

2. READ Matthew 5:2-11, 22:34-40. These nine statements can be thematically divided into two: vs. 3-6 describe our inner devotion to God, and vs. 7-11 describe our outward action towards the world. Why do you think Jesus uses this structure to teach?

• READ Matthew 5:3-6. How does this inner devotion towards God affect or alter our worldview, and our approach to facing hard situations in the world all around us?

• READ Matthew 5:7-11. How do these outward actions towards the world frame how we look at, and interact with, our neighbors??

3. READ Matthew 5:10-12. The last two Beatitudes describe how we remain faithful when under pressure. Which of these Beatitudes is most countercultural today? Why?

• READ Isaiah 51:7-8, John 15:18-20. While persecution is not proof of Christ-like behavior, it often comes with it. How do these words help shape what it means to be successful or faithful in our faith?

TAKING IT HOME

READ Matthew 5:11-12, James 1:2-4, Philippians 3:20-21. In the Reformed Tradition, we often speak of our assurance of faith – of how we're held by God, and that with our faith in God, we will persevere through all of life. How does this assurance and perseverance contribute to the spiritual revolution that the Lord is leading?
