

Living Waters

*Whoever believes in me...
streams of living water will
flow from within him.
- John 7:38*

Living Waters is an in-depth, Christ-centered, listening prayer ministry for people seeking wholeness in every area of life. Living Waters addresses the reality that we are all broken in our ability to love others well. Thankfully, Christ's capacity to touch and deeply restore us emotionally, relationally, and sexually extends to everyone.

Living Waters provides a safe, confidential environment for men and women to share honestly in large group and gender-specific small group settings. Each meeting will include worship, teaching and healing prayer to identify and meet our true need through the hope found in Jesus.

Church of the Apostles in cooperation with Love and Truth Network is offering a two-day Living Waters intensive.

- February 8-9, 2019 (Friday, 6:30-9:30 PM, Saturday, 9am-4pm)
- 338 Commerce Drive, Fairfield
- Cost: $50/person (covers registration and materials)
- Registration closes on February 3
- For more information contact Jan at jbuchanan@apostlesct.org

Living Waters leaders have been trained and a confidentiality policy is in place to help ensure trust and safety in the group.

We focus our attention and praise on God rather than on our problems and use psychological insights and biblical truths that help us to know God and ourselves better.

We invite the Holy Spirit to heal our various wounds. We bring sins we have committed and those committed against us to the Lord who is faithful to set us free.

God created us in His image as male and female. Great healing comes as men and women seek inner healing alongside one another, thereby reflecting God's intention and character. Therefore, we value men and women working out their healing together in a large group setting and in gender-specific small groups.

Living Waters

*Whoever believes in me...
streams of living water will
flow from within him.
- John 7:38*

Living Waters is an in-depth, Christ-centered, listening prayer ministry for people seeking wholeness in every area of life. Living Waters addresses the reality that we are all broken in our ability to love others well. Thankfully, Christ's capacity to touch and deeply restore us emotionally, relationally, and sexually extends to everyone.

Living Waters provides a safe, confidential environment for men and women to share honestly in large group and gender-specific small group settings. Each meeting will include worship, teaching and healing prayer to identify and meet our true need through the hope found in Jesus.

Church of the Apostles in cooperation with Love and Truth Network is offering a two-day Living Waters intensive.

- February 8-9, 2019 (Friday, 6:30-9:30 PM, Saturday, 9am-4pm)
- 338 Commerce Drive, Fairfield
- Cost: $50/person (covers registration and materials)
- Registration closes on February 3
- For more information contact Jan at jbuchanan@apostlesct.org

Living Waters leaders have been trained and a confidentiality policy is in place to help ensure trust and safety in the group.

We focus our attention and praise on God rather than on our problems and use psychological insights and biblical truths that help us to know God and ourselves better.

We invite the Holy Spirit to heal our various wounds. We bring sins we have committed and those committed against us to the Lord who is faithful to set us free.

God created us in His image as male and female. Great healing comes as men and women seek inner healing alongside one another, thereby reflecting God's intention and character. Therefore, we value men and women working out their healing together in a large group setting and in gender-specific small groups.

What should I expect?

The Living Waters intensive is broken into four sections that include worship, teaching, large-group prayer and ministry, and gender-specific small groups.

Participants must attend the entire time, be prepared to honestly and openly share personal areas of our lives that need to be healed by God through listening prayer, and commit to keeping all conversations, personal reflections, and testimonies confidential.

What will I learn?

- Realizing how our family of origin affects our relationships
- Receiving the Father's love
- Who we are as men and women
- The cross and confession
- Roots of gender confusion and brokenness
- Healing from sexual abuse
- Restoring the true self through the cross
- Overcoming sexual addiction
- Embracing the church as our healing community
- Building healthy relationships

Is Living Waters for me?

If the following statements describe your heart for hope and healing, you may want to consider participating in Living Waters:

- A desire to deepen your relationship with Christ
- A desire to have healthy relationships with others
- A desire to grow in your identity as a man or woman of God, allowing Him to reveal the good of your sexuality
- A willingness to face the sinfulness of your present state by exploring hurts from your past including those experienced from parents
- A willingness to be open and honest with others, including sexuality, emotions, and identity
- A willingness to receive the healing ministry of the Holy Spirit in these deep areas
- A desire and willingness to walk free from sinful patterns

For more information contact Jan at
jbuchanan@apostlesct.org

What should I expect?

The Living Waters intensive is broken into four sections that include worship, teaching, large-group prayer and ministry, and gender-specific small groups.

Participants must attend the entire time, be prepared to honestly and openly share personal areas of our lives that need to be healed by God through listening prayer, and commit to keeping all conversations, personal reflections, and testimonies confidential.

What will I learn?

- Realizing how our family of origin affects our relationships
- Receiving the Father's love
- Who we are as men and women
- The cross and confession
- Roots of gender confusion and brokenness
- Healing from sexual abuse
- Restoring the true self through the cross
- Overcoming sexual addiction
- Embracing the church as our healing community
- Building healthy relationships

Is Living Waters for me?

If the following statements describe your heart for hope and healing, you may want to consider participating in Living Waters:

- A desire to deepen your relationship with Christ
- A desire to have healthy relationships with others
- A desire to grow in your identity as a man or woman of God, allowing Him to reveal the good of your sexuality
- A willingness to face the sinfulness of your present state by exploring hurts from your past including those experienced from parents
- A willingness to be open and honest with others, including sexuality, emotions, and identity
- A willingness to receive the healing ministry of the Holy Spirit in these deep areas
- A desire and willingness to walk free from sinful patterns

For more information contact Jan at
jbuchanan@apostlesct.org