MODERN STATEMENTS TO KNOW:

The Danvers Statement (1988)

The Danvers Statement summarizes the need for the Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood (CBMW) and serves as an overview of our core beliefs. This statement was prepared by several evangelical leaders at a CBMW meeting in Danvers, Massachusetts, in December of 1987. This includes recognizable names such as John Frame, Wayne Grudem, John Piper, S. Lewis Johnson, Richard Mayhue, and many others. It was first published in final form by the CBMW in Wheaton, Illinois in November of 1988.

Each week, we will look at one affirmation from the statement. The full text is available at <https://cbmw.org/about/danvers-statement>.

Affirmation 7

In all of life Christ is the supreme authority and guide for men and women, so that no earthly submission-domestic, religious, or civil-ever implies a mandate to follow a human authority into sin (Dan 3:10-18; Acts 4:19-20, 5:27-29; 1 Pet 3:1-2).

Commentary

All earthly submission, regardless of gender, is to be “as to the Lord.” All authority is delegated from God, making our obedience an act of worship. As such, the civil magistrate, church elder, or head of the family that commands disobedience to Christ does not have the authority to make such a demand on us.

Even so, we should take note of these Scriptures to learn the proper pattern of Christian “disobedience” (which is still obedience to Christ). We still have to maintain a godly demeanor and respect the authority that God has still placed over us. We don’t know if our consistent behavior may be a witness to the lost.

Video and audio recordings of the messages are available for listening or downloading from GraceSavannah.org, where you can find links to our YouTube and Sermon Audio accounts.
