LEARNING OUR FAITH:

Spurgeon's Catechism Question #11

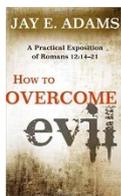

Q. What are God's works of providence?

A. God's works of providence are his most holy, (Psalm 145:17) wise, (Isaiah 28:29) and powerful, (Hebrews 1:3) preserving and governing all his creatures, and all their actions. (Psalm 103:19; Matthew 10:29)

Commentary

We must understand that the daily moments of our lives as well as the fate of the nations are always under God's control, knowledge which brings comfort.

The Statement on Social Justice and the Gospel

(<https://statementonsocialjustice.com>)

In view of questionable sociological, psychological, and political theories presently permeating our culture and making inroads into Christ's church, we wish to clarify certain key Christian doctrines and ethical principles prescribed in God's Word. Clarity on these issues will fortify believers and churches to withstand an onslaught of dangerous and false teachings that threaten the gospel, misrepresent Scripture, and lead people away from the grace of God in Jesus Christ.

Specifically, we are deeply concerned that values borrowed from secular culture are currently undermining Scripture in the areas of race and ethnicity, manhood and womanhood, and human sexuality.

The Nashville Statement (2017)

A new and controversial statement from a broad swath of evangelicals, the Nashville affirms the biblical view of sexuality. The initial signatories include John MacArthur, R. C. Sproul, and a number of other notable names. Each week, we'll take a look at an article from it, and the full statement is available online at <https://cbmw.org/nashville-statement>.

Article 11

WE AFFIRM our duty to speak the truth in love at all times, including when we speak to or about one another as male or female.

WE DENY any obligation to speak in such ways that dishonor God's design of his image bearers as male and female.

Commentary

Some may initially approach those living in sin harshly, but the Bible calls us to speak the truth in love. Even so, this does not mean that we soft-peddle sin by calling it “brokenness” or affirming someone’s sinful choices. God wants us, in our love, to also speak truth.
