March 15, 2020

This week we are talking about how we can live fully in community, even with restrictions. within your Christian identity, and read a case study right out of the bible of how we can grow and care for each other in community

Reflect on how you can live fully with your OWN FREE TIME:

Do the activity, Living fully - you can do anything! When you are complete, consider the ways you spend your time on the message board. You do not have to share your completed page if you do not want to, but it would be good to hear your reflections.

How can you live fully IN COMMUNITY:

Read the case study right out of the bible in Luke 10:25-37. I promise, its a good read. Consider your own life. When has the fullness of your every day taken away from your ability to see your neighbors? To be more like the Levite or the priest than the Samaritan? Think of an example at school. Which felt better in your heart. Even with social distancing, how can you (or we as a group) be more like the Samaritan?

How can you live fully with GOD?:

Take some time to be completely alone without devices. Pray and meditate on God's words for those who may be suffering from sickness or pain in isolation. The world and our community needs our prayers.

Please PRAY:

Ask God to give strength and protection to people who are sick, especially older people, and that the world's most vulnerable would have access to the care they need. You may also wish to follow along with the church liturgy with your family this week. It is lovely.

Lenten Calendars:

Have you checked out your lenten calendars you made a couple of weeks ago? If you were not here that week, I am attaching the list of lenten calendar ideas you can pop into your own calendar! Its a very fun thing to do to keep you reflecting and intentional, moving deeper into your faith during this lenten season.

Music:

Our church sings the most glorious hymns and sacred music. But there are other musicians out there singing very different "praise" music. This is one from a group called, For King and Country: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IA7n7TwPDmw> and U2s 40: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3z_LBNF_-xI This is a good time to explore, so take a listen and let me know what you think? Are there other songs you enjoy?

Movie:

Join us for tonight's movie night! We will watch The Biggest Little Farm at 6 PM from our homes. It is available on HULU and can be rented on Amazon.

MORE:

More is coming this week for you. I hope we can all stay in community together during this time, though conversation.
