

SUNDAY DEVO // 3-22

Our Sunday night devotional for TVY during social distancing is designed to be a starting point to help you stay connected with God during the week. We challenge you to take some time to read the scriptures provided during the week, answer the questions in a journal or on your notes in your phone, launch a journaling time and provide ideas to serve.

We know during the craziness that our world is in right now that it is easy to forget that God is in control. This virus did not sneak up on Him. He is still in control, He is still the source of peace and He is still the answer. Take some time this week to read through our weekly devotional to help provide a reminder that God is still in control of this world and in your life.

READ

Luke 12:22-26 | Isaiah 41:10 | Psalm 91 | John 16:33

THINK ABOUT IT

1. Out of the above scriptures, is there one you really needed to read this week? Why?
2. How can we gain peace by knowing God will always provide for us?
3. Is it a hard time to trust God right now?
4. Why is it important to remember fear does not come from God?
5. Why is it a helpful reminder that Jesus has already overcome this world?

JOURNAL

Draw small pictures of three things that you are thankful for this week that God provided you. Let these three things be a reminder that God is in control.

CHALLENGE

Look for three ways during social distancing that you can serve your parents.

| ideas: washing dishes, helping with siblings, fix lunch, etc. |

We would love to interact with you on social media! Post and tag us!
