

A Message from Interim Pastor, Rev. Keith A Bush, Sr.

First Gethsemane Baptist Church takes very seriously not only our spiritual growth, but also the physical well-being of our members and all others who may worship with us. With the increasing concerns regarding the impact of the coronavirus (COVID-19) associated with large crowds, we are adhering to the recommendations of our elected officials and medical professionals to suspend our in-person corporate worship service for Sunday, March 15. We are not operating out of fear, but instead out of “Faith and Facts”.

For God has not given us a spirit fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. 2 Timothy 1:7

We invite you to join us virtually as we Livestream our worship service at 10:10 a.m. We encourage you to remain committed to financial stewardship by utilizing online giving or texting ‘GIVE’ to 502-200-8807. Additionally, the trustees will be available on site to accept offerings Sunday from 12:00 – 1:00 in the West Welcome Center.

Please continue to pray and read God’s Word as we rise above this situation in Faith. At times we endure trials so difficult we wonder how we’ll come through them. God commands our confident trust in Him; God will stand with us when we place Him first in our lives.

We are committed to closely follow all changes, updates, and developments from our government and medical experts. We are encouraging our members to practice good hygiene; avoid large crowds, practice social distancing, and continue to wash your hands thoroughly.

Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; He will never leave you or forsake you. Deuteronomy 31:6

Blessings,
Rev. Keith A. Bush, Sr.
