

Luke 10:

30-35: In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, took him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'"

36-37: "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

Galatians 6:

9: "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

10: "Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers."

4. START _____

- ☀ What is your natural, internal reaction to the instruction in Galatians 6:2 to "carry each other's burdens?"
- ☀ What kinds of things tend to make people tire of "doing good?" What is it that most easily makes you weary of "doing good?"
- ☀ What kinds of benefits might Paul be thinking are harvested from not giving up in doing good? What benefits have you personally received from someone who did not give up in doing good?
- ☀ If the priest and Levite were given an opportunity to explain their actions what excuses might they have given?
- ☀ Does it feel like the Samaritan man "did what he could" or did he go "over the top" in caring for the injured man? How does Jesus characterize the Samaritan man's actions?
- ☀ Are you carrying each other's burdens as a group? If God is challenging you to do more for each other, discuss what changes would help you live up to the instructions of Galatians 6.
