

Sunday School Classes for Children and Youth

We also offer age-appropriate discipleship opportunities for children and youth.

The Children's Classes (birth through grade 6) are in a secured area of the church, entered on the second level of the building. Our staff at the children's welcome center will assist parents in getting their children to the appropriate classroom.

Students in grades 7 through 12 gather in the Youth Room 1148-1149 on the first floor of the building for age appropriate lessons and activities.

Small Group Bible Studies In addition to discipleship opportunities on Sunday morning, KCFC also offers small group sessions at the church and in homes of our members.

Some home Bible study groups are for specific periods of time, usually eight to ten weeks. Other groups meet weekly on a regular basis.

For a current list of small group Bible studies, contact the church office at kcfc@kcfc.org.

Making Christ-like Disciples

Nazarenes are part of a global holiness movement. We believe that God loves us and wants us to be part of His kingdom here on earth. This means that all need to be encouraged in our faith, and we want to know more about this new life described in the Bible. Worshipping together and hearing God-blessed messages each week are parts of our faith journey. Reading God's Word and talking with Him in prayer are also essential. But finding a small group of fellow believers for mutual support, encouragement, and learning is also important. This is known as discipleship. Here at Kansas City First Church, we offer several ways for believers to help each other. Bible studies at the church and in private homes are available at various times during the week. Small prayer groups meet on Friday and Sunday mornings. Our most popular discipleship method is through our Sunday School classes that meet at 9:00 each Sunday between the two worship services. We encourage all our worshippers to find a discipleship group that will help them to become more and more like Jesus.
