

¡Saludos en el nombre de Jesucristo!

My friends, today I have two new things to announce. Prior to getting to those, however, I'd like to ask you not to forget our annual meeting and potluck this Sunday. Now, I turn to my new announcements.

First, I want to ask for your help with our Valentine's party on February 12 right after the 10:30 am service. One thing we're going to be doing on that day is sharing love letters to LPPC. So, if you would like to share a love letter to our congregation, please send it either to me or Karen by Thursday, February 9. We're also going to be doing a fun activity by playing "The Newlywed Game", (but in this case, we're calling it "The Not So Newlywed Game"). This will be a clean and church-appropriate version of "The Newlywed Game" that so many of you grew up with. So far, we have four married couples from the church who are participating in it, but we could always use more. So, if you and your spouse would like to be contestants for this game, please let me know. I hope you will all join us on February 12 for food, fun, and fellowship. And don't worry, our party will be over long before the Superbowl starts!

Second, today I want to announce that on the following Sunday, February 19, we are going to be having an organizational meeting after the 10:30am service to talk about starting up Adult Forums again. Steve Chewning, our chairperson for Christian Education, is going to be leading this meeting. We are going to begin our year of Adult Forums the following Sunday, February 26, when I teach a two-part series titled "Healthy Congregations". On March 12, I will also be teaching another Adult Forum titled "Is My Bible Accurate?" After March 12, however, we have no plans for Adult Forums, so I hope you will come out to this organizational meeting in order to help us make some plans.

This Sunday, our scripture readings are Micah 6:1-8 and First Corinthians 1: 18-31. My sermon is titled "A Strange Power". I look forward to joining you at either 8:30am in the Upper Room or at 10:30am either over Zoom or in the sanctuary.

Blessings,

Pastor Rich
