

¡Saludos en el nombre de Jesucristo!

My friends, today I want to share some of the exciting things happening these days in the life of our congregation.

First, last Sunday we celebrated Maddalyn Moore's confirmation at LPPC as she became the newest adult member of our church. As a pastor, it is always a time of great joy for me whenever we get to watch young people get confirmed in fulfillment of the baptismal vows that were made to them as infants. I want to thank Wendy Ingram for taking pictures of this event. You can find the pictures attached to this email.

Second, this Sunday is an exciting time in our church because we will be celebrating the graduates of LPPC. It is also the Day of Pentecost, so don't forget to wear something red.

Finally, I want to remind you that on Sunday, June 4, we will be having an ice cream social after church. The Fellowship Committee will supply the ice cream, but please don't forget to sign up to bring your favorite toppings! Also, starting on June 4, we will be returning to our summer schedule. In lieu of two services at 8:30 and 10:30, we will have one service at 9:30am until we return to our regular schedule after Labor Day.

For our worship services this Sunday, our scripture readings will be Numbers 11: 24-30 and Acts 2: 1-21. My sermon will be titled "The Birth of the Church". I look forward to being with you either at 8:30am in the Upper Room or at 10:30am either in the sanctuary or over Zoom.

Blessings,

Pastor Rich
