

¡Saludos en el nombre de Jesucristo!

My friends, today I have three special announcements.

First, I want to remind all of you of the special event that we're having on Mother's Day to raise money for our church mission projects. Stephanie Lovato's daughter's softball team, the Sundancers, is hosting a pulled pork Barbeque dinner after church in the fellowship hall, and they are generously splitting the profits with us. I hope you will come out and get a delicious plate of barbeque for only $12. Please tell your friends, too! (You are also welcome to share the flier attached with everyone you know).

Second, I also want to remind you that we're getting to that time of year again! On May 28, it will be time to honor all our graduates from the LPPC community. If you have a son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, nephew, neice or any other family member who is graduating from some kind of school this year, (yes, even if it's kindergarten), we would love to have them in attendance on May 28. But since I know that so many of these family members don't live close by, I invite you to share their names with me so that we can let everyone know who they are.

Finally, for the adult forum this Sunday, Bill Lumm is leading a class titled "Alcoholics Anonymous—the Program, the History, and My Personal Journey into Sobriety". Please join Bill at 9:30am in the Upper Room as he tells his inspiring story and talks about the wonderful work of Alcoholics Anonymous.

For our worship services this Sunday, our scripture readings will be Psalm 31: 1-5, 15-16 and John 14: 1-14. My sermon will be titled "How Can We Know the Way?". I look forward to being with you either at 8:30am in the Upper Room or at 10:30am either in the sanctuary or over Zoom.

Blessings,

Pastor Rich
