

CHRIST COMMUNITY CHURCH PAID STAFF & VOLUNTEER COVENANT

Thank you for your desire to serve in ministry at Christ Community Church! We are grateful for the privilege God gives us to partner with you in this covenant and serve Him together through our unique gifts and abilities. By signing below, you are committing yourself to the following standards for all paid staff and volunteers.

We acknowledge that we are fallen and in the process of transformation; with this in mind, signing this Covenant expresses your desire to pursue growth and integrity in your relationship with Jesus Christ and His people, the Church. Please take time to read the Scripture references in each section.

Personal Commitment to Growing in my Relationship with Jesus Christ

- I have been born-again and have a personal, growing relationship with Jesus Christ. Romans 12:1-2
- I believe the Bible is the inerrant Word of God, used for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness.
- I affirm that all of God's Word is true, accurate, and therefore authoritative over my life. 2 Timothy 3:16-17

- I will strive to have a teachable and service-oriented heart.
Proverbs 9:9-10

Community Commitment to the Body of Christ at CCC

- I commit to regularly attend a weekly worship service at CCC. I recognize that gathering in worship is essential to growing & encouraging my own faith, as well as making me available to be used in the lives of those I serve and journey alongside. Acts 2:42-47; Hebrews 10:23-25
- I agree to guard the unity of CCC by refraining from engaging in gossip, slander, or divisiveness. I will be intentional about working through conflict with other believers and seeking reconciliation. Ephesians 4:1-6, 21-31; Matthew 7:3-5, 18:15-17
- I recognize that God has called, and the people of this church have elected, Elders to serve and oversee this faith family. I understand that as a person of influence to other members, I am called to show visible support of our Church, Staff, and Pastors. I commit to prayerfully lifting up our church's leadership and the mission of CCC. Hebrews 13:17; Acts 20:28
- I understand that should there be any confusion, difference of opinion, or questions about decisions made in leadership, I should go directly to those involved and seek resolution. Even if differences are not resolved, I understand that I am to honor and follow the leadership of the Church. Hebrews 13:17

Missional Commitment to Living a Lifestyle Reflecting that I am a Follower of Christ

- I commit to being a positive influence in the lives of those around me, both inside and outside the church family. I commit to being intentional about living the gospel in the way I speak, act, and walk with others on their faith journey. 1 Peter 3:15; Matthew 28:18-20; 2 Timothy 4:2,5
- I agree to abstain from drug and alcohol abuse. Ephesians 5:18
- I agree to remain sexually pure, abstain from pornography, adultery, pre-marital sex, and homosexual practices. Ephesians 5:1-13; I Thessalonians 4:3-7; Hebrews 13:4
- I agree to use language that glorifies God. I will not use profanity or baser language that degrades my Christian testimony.
- I agree to be a good steward of my time, talents, and finances so as to further the mission of CCC and reflect Christ to the community and the world. I will endeavor to give a tithe of my income to CCC to help further the kingdom around the world. Matthew 25:14-30
- Knowing that I live under God's grace and that my faith is not based on works, I choose to pursue God and respond to Him daily in the way that I live. I covenant to do my best to honor God and others in everyday life, especially mindful that people will look to me as an example.

- I commit to using social media (i.e. Facebook, LinkedIn etc.) in a responsible way. I will not post pictures of myself or others in compromising positions that might damage my testimony or bring CCC into a negative light. I will not post links to suggestive sites, nor will I use social media to hurt or damage someone else.
- I commit to pursue Christ Community Church's hope and mission to live as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, revealing and living out the Kingdom of God to the world around us.
- If at any time I choose to no longer follow these principles, I will resign my position to the Senior Pastor.
