WHO MAKE DISCIPLES
MATTHEW 28:19-20

Dear Woodlawn Family,

After seven wonderful years serving as your youth minister, Jennifer and I find ourselves at a bittersweet crossroads. These years have been filled with laughter, learning, and love. I have watched our young men and women grow into wise, faithful, and compassionate contributors to both the church and the world around them. Each moment has been a sacred opportunity to walk beside you, to pray with you, and to witness God's grace at work in our lives.

As many of you know, my family's health and my position at Baptist Hospital now call me to be closer to home. This decision comes with deep reflection and prayer, and though it is difficult to step away from a place that has truly been our home, we trust that God is leading us into a new season of service and growth.

You have been our family, our friends, and our warriors in Christ. Your faith, encouragement, and partnership in ministry have shaped us in ways words can hardly express. We will carry your love and your example with us wherever God leads next.

With Love and Gratitude,
Coker and Jennifer Palmer
