January Issue 2018

LETTER FROM PASTOR ALAN

Hello PKC Parents and Guardians!

Happy New Year! What a blessed year we had in 2017. There were so many things we've done. I think one of the best things we had last year in 2017 was our once a month Praise & Prayer Night on Friday. It was such a blessing to witness how kids can pray to God and crying out to Him. In 2018, we want to see more kids encountering God, not just on Friday Nights but maybe implementing that on Sundays with all the children. When they experience God move in their lives, it will encourage them to seek God on a deeper level. But more importantly, my prayer is that all the families will put God first. During New Year's Eve Sunday Service, I shared 3 things to the kids:

- 1) Remember what the Lord has done (Read Psalm 77:11)
 - a. We need to count our blessing
 - b. When we look back what the Lord has done, we can see how far we have come
- 2) We should "End" something that was not good in the past (Read Ephesians 4:21-24)
 - a. We can't continue to have the same bad habit year after year.
- 3) Forget the past and move on
 - a. The devil reminds us of our past and tells us we are not good enough to follow Jesus
 - b. Don't look back and dwell on the past. God is doing a new thing in us (Isaiah 43:18-19)

I pray that this New Year will be a year where we grow our faith and look forward to the unseen blessings that God has instore for us. With the new transition of our head pastor, from Rev. Kim to Rev. Hur, I know God has amazing and wonderful plans for our church. Once again, Happy New Year and may this year be another year of great miracles and testimonies that testifies His love and mercy in our lives.
