CINCO
BAPTIST CHURCH

We have a new church logo!

I'm excited to share the details of this visual with you. My hope is that you will make the particulars of the logo matters of personal priority and prayer.

Our mission statement as represented by the bridge itself...

Cinco Baptist Church is connecting people to God and to one another.

From the beginning, God was seeking to know and be known by the unique part of His creation, people made in His image. While that relationship has been lost through sin, it can be regained through Jesus Christ. As a church, our goal is to bridge the chasm between people and the God who loves them. When people share a connection with God, they will be united in fellowship with each other.

> 1 John 1:3, "That which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed, our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ."

We are seeking to accomplish this goal through five areas of focus. We will call them our pillars of purpose. The "pillars" hold up the bridge (five pillars at Cinco, see what I did there?). Notice the connection between the mission statement and the pillars of purpose...

Cinco Baptist Church is connecting people to God and one another by:

- Boldly proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. (1 Corinthians 15:1)
- Prioritizing the passionate worship of the Father. (John 4:23)
- Upholding a spirit-filled fellowship of believers. (John 27:20-21)
- Providing biblical education to all generations. (Matthew 28:19-20)
- Shining a light in our community. (Philippians 2:14-15)

As you view the bridge and the "water", I want you to be reminded of God's sovereignty. God has placed us at the foot of the Cinco bridge, in the place, during this time to make an eternal difference. The logo not only represents the connection we are seeking to make between people and God, but also the area in which God has called us to reach with the hope of Jesus.

Heart of Gratitude by Pastor Jeremy

In a world that constantly tells teenagers they need more—more followers, more possessions, more experiences—it can be easy to overlook the blessings God has already placed in their lives. That's why teaching gratitude is such an important part of youth ministry.

Gratitude is more than simply saying "thank you." It's a way of seeing life through the lens of God's goodness.

1 Thessalonians 5:18 reminds us to "give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." Notice that Scripture doesn't say to give thanks for every circumstance, but in every circumstance.

Through youth ministry, we have the opportunity to help students recognize God's faithfulness in both the extraordinary and ordinary moments of life. Whether it's friendships, family, answered prayers, or even difficult seasons that produce spiritual growth, there is always a reason to be thankful.

But gratitude isn't just something we teach: it's something we model. When students see parents, leaders, and mentors expressing thankfulness, even when life is challenging, they begin to understand that gratitude is rooted in trusting God rather than having perfect circumstances.

As we approach this season of Thanksgiving, let's encourage our students to slow down, look around, and recognize God's blessings. Better yet, let's challenge them to turn their gratitude into action by encouraging someone, serving others, or simply thanking someone who has made a difference in their life.

A grateful heart doesn't come from having everything we want. It comes from recognizing that everything we truly need is found in Christ.
