We welcome children of all ages to join us for worship.
An unattended family room is available during the Worship Service for parents and children if needed.
The service is televised.

Today we begin a new series called "CHALLENGES WE FACE." For the next couple months we will look at different challenges through the eyes of Jesus' friend, Peter, and through the two New Testament books Peter wrote. Today we look at the challenges inherent in our faith pilgrimage.

Items may be placed downstairs on the marked tables by 10/8. Will accept items until 10/15 if the weather holds out, but the sooner the better! Please leave a note with your items including your name and if you want unsold items returned to you. Thank you!
