“Loving God and Loving Others”

Notice that relational evangelism does not begin with speaking – it begins with listening. And it may take a significant amount of time and attention to listen well before we have won the right to speak.

We welcome children of all ages to join us for worship.
An unattended family room is available during the Worship Service for parents and children if needed.
The service is televised.

Everyone is invited to join us downstairs in the Fellowship Hall today following the service for cake, ice cream, coffee or punch to wish Larry a Happy 80th Birthday! Marilyn

Our Annual Meeting will be held on Sunday, January 28. After the morning service we will enjoy a potluck meal, and after the meal we will have our meeting in the sanctuary. A written Annual Report is available to anyone who desires one; it contains individual Ministry Team reports and our ministry spending plan for the coming year. Members will be asked to vote on new leaders (some rotate off and new ones come on each year) and on the ministry spending plan. Attenders are welcome at the meeting to observe how we conduct our business.

Next week Pastor Steve will be attending the Midwinter Conference in Chicago to do continuing education. The service on the 28th will not have a sermon, but will have music and testimonies. Where have you seen God at work in your life? Come prepared to share something!

The Northwest Conference holds an Annual Meeting in April and our Covenant denomination holds one in June. We may send delegates to both. You need only be a member of this church and have the time available in order to represent us. Our church will help with registration and other costs. If you are interested, please see our Chairman, Brad Jacobson or Pastor Steve. These are quite wonderful meetings, offering workshops, fellowship and valuable insights into our ministries throughout our region and the world.

Men's Group is holding an ice fishing outing on Sunday, February 11 at 2:00 pm on East Rush Lake. There will be food, fun, fish (hopefully) and a warm "house on the lake". Anglers will need a license. See Royal Carlson or Jim Axberg if you wish to fish. Friends are welcome!

Kenya mission trip FUNDRAISER!

Today is the last day to order a Kenya shirt and save on shipping! We are selling specially designed shirts in 6 different styles! All profits go toward our trip to Kenya in May. Information for ordering is located on a table near the coffee area. You may place your own online order until 1/23. Thank you for supporting our trip!

We are only $446 away from fully funding our 4 students going to CHIC! If a few of us fill an envelope from the fundraising wall (located near the coffee area), we would have the balance covered. Thank you for supporting this awesome experience for our youth!

The Adult Sunday School class that meets downstairs will be starting a new series called "The Cross". It is $7.00 for the lesson book. See Seth Draper for more information.

A resuscitation station will be set up in the Fellowship Hall in case there is another Vikings game today with a finish like last week! All fans are urged to pray in advance of fainting so that recovery time is quicker.

Saturday, February 3, from 2 – 4 pm
