“Loving God and Loving Others”

“Our prayers may be awkward. Our attempts may be feeble. But since the power of prayer is in the One Who hears it and not in the one who says it, our prayers do make a difference.”

— Max Lucado

FAITH DAY AT TARGET FIELD!

Sunday, August 25, 1:10 pm: Minnesota Twins vs. Detroit Tigers. Let's get together and cheer on the Twins! Your ticket includes a post-game program featuring live worship music and player's testimonies. $48 each for a great infield seat! We will have an earlier church service here that day. After church, we will carpool down to the Fort Snelling lot and take the light rail together to the game. HCC will cover the cost of your train ticket.

A sign-up sheet is in the coffee area. Payment is due by July 14. Make checks out to HCC with "Twins" on the memo line. Invite your friends and neighbors — we can do "baseball evangelism."

FUND RAISER

On Wednesday, May 22, there will be tables set up at the Pine City flea market to raise money for Kakuswi Special School for the Deaf in Kenya, as well as for possible future mission trips. If you have any unique, collectible, interesting, and/or useful items you would be willing to donate, bring them to church Sunday, May 19. (No clothes please.) Thank you for your continued support of the school!

PONDERINGS

"... the gospel of Jesus was not primarily a political platform. The issues that confront Christians in a secular society must be faced and addressed and legislated, and a democracy gives Christians every right to express themselves. But we dare not invest so much in the kingdom of this world that we neglect our main task of introducing people to a different kind of kingdom, one based solely on God's grace and forgiveness. Passing laws to enforce morality serves a necessary function, to dam up evil, but it never solves human problems. If a century from now, all that historians can say about evangelicals of the 1990s is that they stood for family values, then we will have failed the mission Jesus gave us to accomplish: to communicate God's reconciling love to sinners."
