

Barn

By Pastor Steve Weismann on 4/29/2020

For many of us there is a place unlike other places, sacred in the sense that we had an encounter with God once. Or maybe each time we go there.

The painting below is of the barn on the back property of Lake Beauty Bible Camp in Long Prairie, MN. The camp is sacred space for me, a small piece of geography where heaven touches earth.

Sacred places can be anywhere, but are usually away from mainstream activity, where our thoughts and hearts may more fully turn to God.

In Mark 6:31 Jesus says to His close friends, “Come away by yourselves to a solitary place and rest a while’ (for there were people coming and going and they did not even have time to eat).”

Perhaps you have a sacred place? Feel free to share it.

PRAYER: “Lord, thank you for setting apart places to rest and meet with You.”
