

Compelling Christian Community

Acts 2:42-47

We understand that our love for one another is a powerful testimony to the deity of Jesus.

We love each other as we are, not as we should be.

We share life together beyond the worship service.

Heartfelt Worship

Psalms 138:1; John 4:23

We exalt and celebrate God for who he is, what he has done, what he is doing and what he will do.

Worship reflects careful preparation to help give voice to many dimensions of response to God such as adoration, praise, contrition, lament, and commitment.

People leave worship knowing something more about the heart of God and about their own hearts.

Sacrificial & Generous Living & Giving

Romans 12:1-8

We help people discover, develop and deploy their spiritual gifts.

We regularly, graciously, and unapologetically teach on the importance of financial stewardship in the spiritual growth of the Christian.

We have many examples of lifestyle choices being made on the basis of stewardship and the priority God plays in the lives of our members.

Culture of Godly Leadership

Hebrews 13:7

Our leaders at all levels serve with character, competence, and conviction.

A spirit of collegiality pervades, with our people trusting our leaders and our leaders trusting our people.

We continually identify and train godly leaders for all dimensions of our ministry.

Fruitful Organizational Structures

Exodus 18:13-26, Acts 6:1-7

We can articulate a compelling, Christ-honoring vision for our church.

We embrace evaluation as normal and natural and work through conflict constructively.

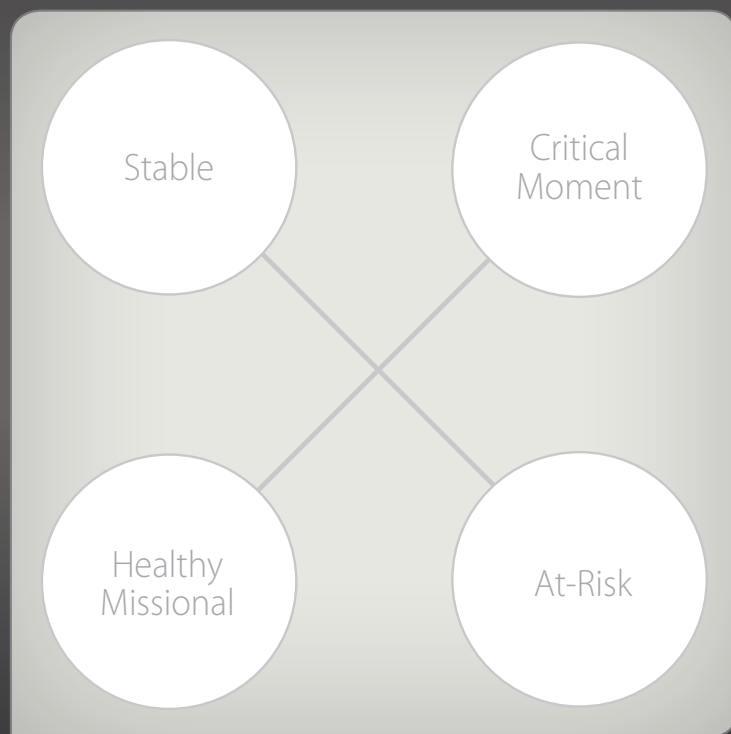

Our organizational structures are designed to be efficient at making decisions while at the same time building congregational ownership for those decisions.

"X" Marks the Spot...

There are four types of established churches in the Covenant: healthy missional, stable, critical moment, and at-risk. Using the ten healthy missional markers as a metric, mark an "X" where you would put your church. Draw an arrow from the "X" in the direction your church is moving.

Rating Guide:

- Healthy Missional: The markers are strong (80-100 percent of the time)
- Stable: The markers are average (50-79 percent)
- Critical Moment: The markers are weakening (15-49 percent)
- At-Risk: The markers are faint or non-existent (0-14 percent)

vitality

Congregational Vitality is about life, passion and awakening. It is a journey that is both adventurous and treacherous. There are no quick fixes.

We don't drift into congregational vitality. It doesn't just happen. There comes a point when a congregation makes the Spirit-filled decision to move forward and become a healthy missional church. By "healthy" we mean pursuing Christ. By "missional" we mean pursuing Christ's priorities in the world.

This easy-to-use resource provides a quick and helpful summary of the vitality pathway, the ten healthy missional markers, and the four types of established churches. Remember, prayer marks every step of the journey and we are in it together.
