

Breakthrough: Breakthrough Challenges our Strongholds

Luke 18:35-42

2026.10.25

Read Luke 18:35-42: Each person share about one of the following questions

- What did you like about this passage?
- What didn't you like or made you uncomfortable about this passage?
- What didn't you understand about this passage?
- What does this passage teach us about Jesus?

The blind man refused to be quiet, even when others rebuked him. He knew he needed help, and he believed Jesus was the one who could help him.

- Why is it difficult to admit that we need help, especially when it comes to our spiritual lives or personal struggles? What are we afraid others might think?
- The blind man kept shouting even when people tried to silence him. What might it look like for you to pursue Jesus with that kind of desperation? Is there an area of your life where you need to stop pretending you're fine and cry out to Him for help?

When Jesus called the blind man to come to Him, he threw aside his coat, jumped to his feet, and came to Jesus. His response reflected excitement, expectation, and faith.

- What stands out to you about the blind man's response to Jesus' invitation?
- Jesus invites the weary, burdened, and thirsty to come to Him (Matthew 11:28; John 7:37-38). What tends to keep you from responding to Jesus with eagerness and expectation? What could that look like this week?

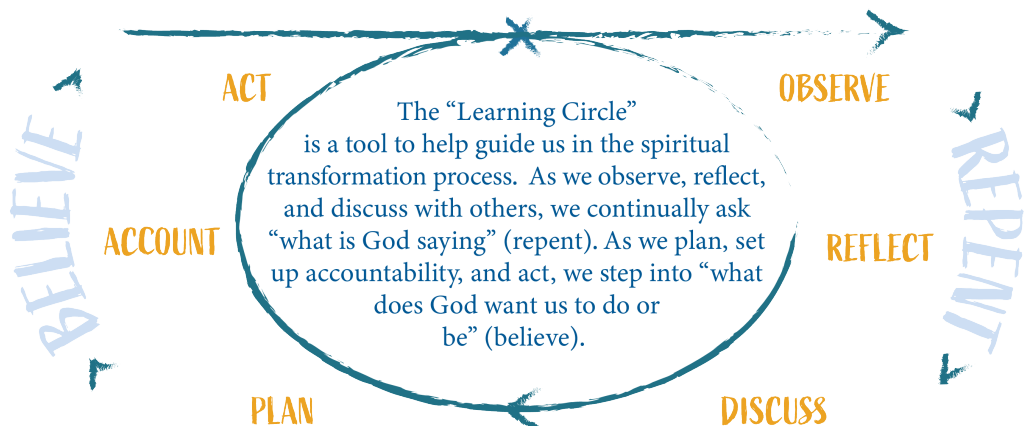

Jesus asked the blind man, "What do you want me to do for you?" Even though his need seemed obvious, Jesus invited him to express his desire.

- If Jesus asked you that same question today, what would your answer be? What is one area of your life where you long to experience His freedom, healing, restoration, or direction?

What got your attention during the message/discussion this week?

- Why did it get your attention? (Did something make you mad, sad, glad or go hmm?)
- What might God be saying to you about this?
- What might God be saying to do/be about this?
- What ways do you need to step more fully into a true follower of Jesus?

Before you leave, go around and name someone in your life who needs Christ. Spend some time praying for them and for one another.

Prayer Prompts

- Ask God to show you where you are blind or have strongholds.
- Cry out to Jesus for help in that area.
- Admit to Jesus that you can't do it alone, in your own strength.
- Ask for the courage to declare your need before others as the blind man did.
- Thank God for hearing our cries and giving us freedom over our strongholds.
