

The People in Your Life: Friends

Hebrews 10:19-25 2026.11.15

Read the above passage: Each person share about one of the following questions

- What did you like about this passage?
- What didn't you like or made you uncomfortable about this passage?
- What didn't you understand about this passage?
- What does this passage teach us about Jesus?

Hebrews 10:24 challenges us to intentionally think of ways to motivate one another.

- How would you describe the difference between being friendly toward someone and being a true friend? Which comes more naturally to you?
- Discuss your "relational map" of those in your life who you have real friendship with. What makes them a real friend?

Hebrews 10:24-25 reveals a kind of relationship that both encourages and challenges others, while allowing others to do the same with you.

- How easy or difficult is it for you to receive spiritual correction, feedback, or encouragement from another believer?
- What makes that difficult?
- Who in your life do you allow into this kind of relationship with you?

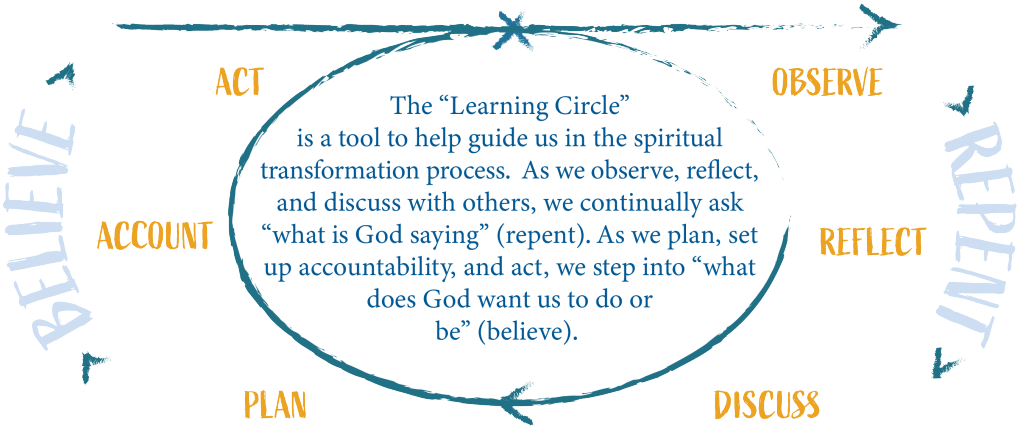

Discuss the people God has placed in your life.

- Why is it hard to move from being "friendly" to a "real friend" who motives, encourages, and challenges others?
- Who are you intentionally helping grow in their relationship with Jesus?
- What might it look like to take a more intentional step in that relationship?

What got your attention during the message/discussion this week?

- Why did it get your attention? (Did something made you mad, sad, glad or go hmm?)
- What might God be saying to you about this?
- What might God be saying to do/be about this?
- What ways do you need to step more fully into a true follower of Jesus?

Before you leave, go around and name someone in your life who needs Christ. Spend some time praying for them and for one another.
