

The People in Your Life: People of Peace

Luke 10:1-20 and Colossians 4:5-6 2026.11.29

Read the above passages: Each person share about one of the following questions:

- What did you like about these passages?
- What didn't you like or made you uncomfortable about these passages?
- What didn't you understand about these passages?
- What do these passages teach us about Jesus?

In Luke 10:5-9, we see several ways that Jesus' disciples interacted with those that they were sent to reach with the good news.

- Who can you identify right now as a possible "person of peace" in your life, and what gives you the sense that they might be that kind of person for you?
- Have you taken steps to share the good news of Jesus with them yet? Why or why not?

In Colossians 4:5-6, Paul encourages believers to be wise and ready for conversations with those who don't know Jesus yet.

- When you think about your behavior, speech, and attitude in front of non-believers (whether online or in person), would you describe it as wise?
- What is one way that you could be better prepared for when opportunities to have spiritual conversations arise?

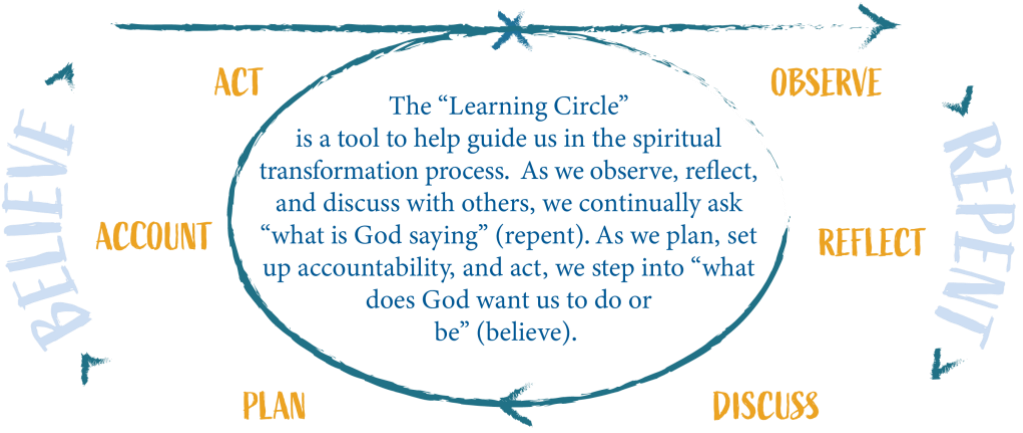

In Luke 10:20, Jesus reminds His disciples to focus their own personal transformation and relationship with God as they share with others.

- What are some ways that God might begin to bring about breakthrough in your life as you tell other people about Him?
- Are there things that you are nervous about changing to help reach others?

What got your attention during the message/discussion this week?

- Why did it get your attention? (Did something made you mad, sad, glad or go hmm?)
- What might God be saying to you about this?
- What might God be saying to do/be about this?
- What ways do you need to step more fully into a true follower of Jesus?

Before you leave, go around and name someone in your life who needs Christ. Spend some time praying for them and for one another.
