

Lights In The World [Lyrics, 76 bpm, 6/8]

[Cornerstone Worship] by Clay Dial

With this hope
we will carry on
In Your truth
we abide and belong
On Your Word
We hold fast and believe
By Your Spirit
we will rise to see

Your Name, glorified above them all
For You came, knowing You would pay the cost
You obeyed, even to death on a cross

Your flame burning bright in our hearts
That the earth may be filled with Your sparks
Lights in the world

With this peace
We will weather the storm
In Your grace
We are changed and reborn
On Your call
We're compelled to reach
By Your power
We will rise to see

Every eye shall see
Every knee shall bow
Every tongue confess
You are Lord
Now the night must retreat
For You tore death down
Every tongue confess
You are Lord
