

It was good to be back with you on Sunday. What a great service we had as we looked at the topic of Worship in our Bodybuilding Series. I want to say “thank you” to Ricardo and Sinisa for sharing their Violin talents with us. They add greatly to the music part of our service and I know they are blessing to you. It was also great to have Laura Carr sing for us.

On Sunday, September 9 we are going to have our choirs (Preschool, Kids, and Adults) singing during the music part of the evening worship service. Plan to be there!

PraiSing Him,

Mark

In case you have not heard, Sunday morning sermons can now be viewed on our website www.immanuelbaptistchurch.us. Sunday evenings are available to listen to.

Also, we encourage you to visit and “Like” our church facebook page to help you stay current on church information.

It’s a great time to join the choir! No auditions are necessary – just meet in the choir room at 7:45pm on Wednesday nights. We will be looking for you!

Dear IBC Family,

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town, their two young sons were in some way involved.

The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons' behavior. The mother had heard that a preacher in town had been successful in disciplining children in the past. So she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman.

The husband said, 'We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!' The preacher agreed to speak with the boys but asked to see them individually. The 8 year old went to meet with him first. The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, 'Where is God?'

The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, 'Where is God?' Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the preacher raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face, 'WHERE IS GOD?'

At that the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet. His older brother followed him into the closet and asked what had happened. The younger brother replied, 'We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it.'

Well, God isn’t missing! Want to find Him? Just pray. Sincerely pray. Yes, it’s that easy. James 4:8 says, “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.”

See you Sunday,

Pastor Lane
