

Richmond Hill
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Adult Sunday School Class Offerings

Agape: Led by Bob Shultz Room 307 - Education Building

This class is named after the Greek word for love. We are studying the current Cokesbury Adult Bible Series. This is a quarterly study that presents stimulating lessons that explore the Biblical message and how to apply it to daily life. Adults move from a focus on the word to reflection on personal, family, church and community concerns.

F.U.S.E: Led by Chip Hester Guestroom

In our F.U.S.E. class (Form, Unite, Serve, Empower) we enjoy sharing the rich experience and meaningful perspectives of participants who span in age from their early 20's to their mid-80's, always sprinkled with good humor and occasionally a tear or two. Our earnest desire is to help each other grow in faith as disciples of Jesus. We alternate between topical and Bible studies that may last from a few weeks to a few months in duration. But don't worry, we always ensure that visitors can plug-in to our studies at any time. We meet in the outside Guest Room next to the ramp on the "Starbucks & Firehouse Subs" side of the Church.

New Beginnings: Led by Donna Hoke Room 208 - Education Building

New Beginnings Sunday School Class enjoys video-based bible studies followed by discussion. Authors such as Andy Stanley, Adam Hamilton, and Max Lucado are among class favorites. Although the majority of our members are retired, we also have diversity in age and welcome everyone. The class enjoys fellowship with each other and supporting ministries of our church and in the community.

Right Now: Led by Janine Blakeborough, Mike Kornegay, and Chuck Hayes Curry

If you are looking to connect with other adults in our church but don't know where to begin, this class is perfect for you. It's called "Right Now Sunday School" for two reasons. First, we will be watching various short segment videos from our amazing and under-utilized video library through "RightNowMedia.org". But it's also for those who may not be at church as often as you'd like due to work or travel commitments, but you're here "right now". There are no sequential studies so you won't feel left behind if you miss a week or two. If you've been missing out on that connection with other adults in our church, this class is just right for you "right now". Please contact Janine Blakeborough at family@rhumc.com with any questions.

Saints: Led by Jan Alexuk Parlor

The Saints Sunday School Class is following what we call: Random. Each Sunday someone picks a book of the New Testament, someone else picks a chapter, and a third person picks a verse to begin with. This is all done in class on Sunday. There is no advance preparation on the part of the students. With this new format, it's easy to drop in at any time. All adults are welcome. You don't have to be a senior citizen to be in this class any more!

Seekers: Led by Terri Jarrell Room 204 - Education Building

We study the Bible from a historical perspective. Ever wonder the differences between the Jewish Leadership in Jesus' time or why sheep are mentioned in the Bible? We cover it. We cover each word and verse of the Bible step-by-step. We are a discussion-based group where you are not required to participate. We encourage all opinions and value the life experiences that shape our discussions as we study the Bible itself.
