Intro to the Reading:

L: We are never alone. God continues to open our eyes to taste and see the Lord is good. The risen Jesus meets up with two followers and teaches them how the story of the Bible finds its center in the cross. 1 Peter connects the death of Christ with our life in God. A reading from 1 Peter, chapter 1...

First Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-23 NRSVue

L: ¹⁷ If you invoke as Father the one who judges impartially according to each person's work, live in fear during the time of your exile. ¹⁸ You know that you were ransomed from the futile conduct inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold ¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. ²⁰ He was destined before the foundation of the world but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. ²¹ Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your trust and hope are in God.

²² Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual affection, love one another deeply from the heart.

²³ You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

L: The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation pg. 142

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

P: The Gospel according St. Luke, the twenty-fourth chapter...

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

The Gospel: Luke 24:13-35 NRSVue

P: ¹³ Now on that same day two [disciples] were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴ and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶ but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷ And he said to them, “What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?” They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸ Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?” ¹⁹ He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹ But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. ²² Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³ and when they did not find his body there they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. ²⁴ Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him.” ²⁵ Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶ Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?” ²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

²⁸ As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹ But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰ When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished from their sight. ³² They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" ³³ That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem, and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴ They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then they told what had happened on the road and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

(9a) The Apostles' Creed...Page 105

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.*

On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,

the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving: ... page 144

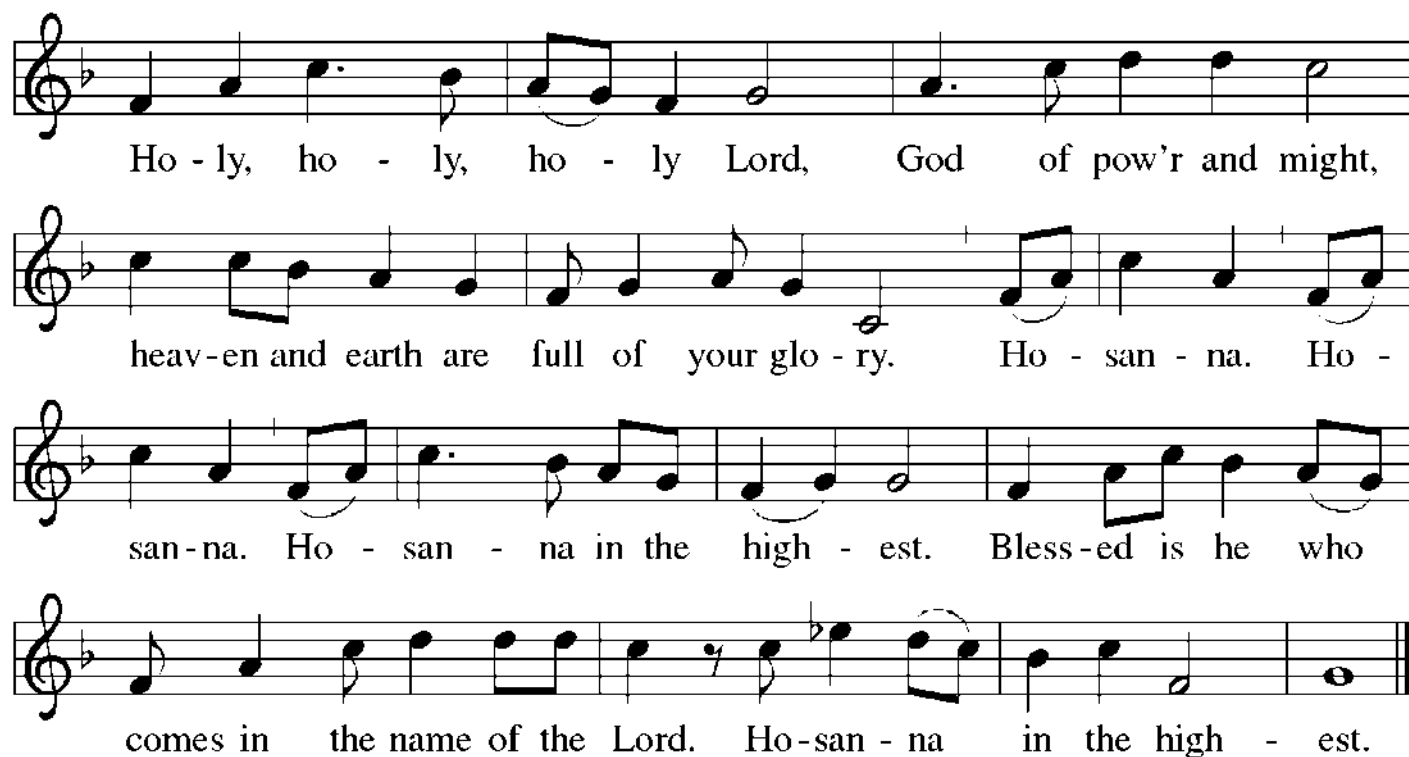

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Easter Preface:

P: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ, the true Paschal Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin; who in dying has destroyed death, and in rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Sanctus: "Holy, Holy, Holy"... page 144

Words of Institution

P: In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

P: Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

P: You may be seated. Please follow the direction of the ushers to come forward. There is gluten free bread and juice available upon request. The table is set and all are welcome. (optional) Taste and see that the Lord is good.

Sending Service for Daniel Luepke

Steve: People of God, we pause to give thanks and to send forth our sibling in Christ, Daniel Luepke. Daniel will soon complete his seminary formation at Wartburg Theological Seminary and go from among us to be ordained as a minister of Word and Sacrament in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Steve: First, we have these gifts to offer Daniel from on behalf of the congregation. I invite Sue Padget and Terry Shie, who served as the chair of Daniel's Internship and Support Committee to come forward, along with _____.

Terry Shie offers a communion kit

Sue Padget offers a banner to Daniel.

Scripture

Katie: A reading from Isaiah:

Thus says the Lord, who created you, O Jacob, who formed you, O Israel:
Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.
When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you;
when you walk through fire you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you.

For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

Address

Steve: Daniel, in holy baptism our Lord Jesus Christ received you and made you a member of his church. In your time among us as Member Engagement Coordinator and then serving as Intern and Synodical Authorized Minister at Ascension Lutheran Church, you have enriched this congregation and Ascension through your faithfulness, your prayers, and your witness to the gospel. God has blessed you and blessed us through you.

Steve: As you make final preparations to be sent to serve as an ordained minister in Christ's church, we release you with gratitude and send you with our blessing. Go now to share the gospel, baptize and teach, announce God's forgiveness, and preside at the Lord's table. We will hold you in our prayers.

Steve: People of God, do you give thanks for Daniel's ministry among us, and do you send him forth with your blessing?

All: We do, and we give thanks to God for our time together.

Prayer

Steve: Let us pray.

Gracious God, we thank you for the work and witness of your servant Daniel, formed in faith and prepared for ministry through Wartburg Seminary and the SE Iowa Synod, and nurtured among us as your people. You have watched over his going out and his coming in. Now bless and preserve him at this time of sending. Day by day, guide him and give him what is needed—courage to preach your Word, wisdom to shepherd your people, friends to cheer his way, and a clear vision of that to which you are calling him. By your Holy Spirit be present in his pilgrimage, that he may travel with the one who is the way, the truth, and the life, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord's face shine on you with grace and mercy.

The Lord look upon you with favor and † give you peace.

Amen.

Benediction:

P: Almighty God, Father, † Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you now and forever.

All: Amen.
