Guests and Members

Thank you for joining us for worship today! If you need anything please let our ushers or Elder on duty know. During the offering you can place the attendance card you received as you entered into the offering basket. If both pastors are present at a service, one pastor will remain up front for special prayers after the service.

For those who wish to commune: As Lutheran Christians, we view Holy Communion as a wonderful blessing, in which God gives us the true body and blood of Christ with the bread and wine. It is a tie to Christ's dying for us. In love for others, we think it is important to know what we believe and receive instruction before communing. Guests not from Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod congregations are asked to read "OUR UNDERSTANDING AND PRACTICE" OF THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION on the card in the slot on the pew in front of them. Guests and children are welcome to come forward for a blessing. If you don't feel able to come up the stairs, you can let the ushers know and the pastors will bring communion to you, or you can come and sit in the front row on the pulpit side during distribution and the pastors will commune that as the last group.

◆ POBLO Missionaries to Visit

On the weekend of May 12 and 13, Pastor Farrukh Khan will be joining us as our guest preacher for the weekend. Pastor Khan has been with us at Trinity before and is a part of POBLO Ministries, which is one of our LCMS Ministry to Muslims. He will be joined by Sarah Christian, who was a convert to Christianity after fleeing her home country. There will be a workshop with Pastor Khan and Sarah on Saturday, May 12 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. and along with Pastor Khan preaching in our services, Sarah will share her story with us at our Bible class on Sunday morning. Join us for what is sure to be an inspiring and informative weekend.
