

Family Devotional Week 3

Virtue:

Humility

Scripture Verse:

“Don’t do anything only to get ahead. Don’t do it because you are proud. Instead, be humble. Value others more than yourselves.”
Philippians 2:3 (NirV)

Devotional Thought:

Have you ever bowed to someone? You might have done it at a martial arts class, seen it in a dance or maybe you have even been in the presence of royalty. Bowing means that you physically get lower than someone else in order to make them taller or greater. It also says to the person you are bowing to that I trust you. Bowing is a physical reminder of what humility is. That is to put other people above our self just like Romans 12:10 says.

Taking Action:

Have a “Bowing” day at your house. You can bow for many different reasons. In some cultures it’s a way to say “hello”. Bow to someone before you serve them something at mealtime. Bowing can be a fun way to let your family know that you love, respect and trust them.
