REFLECTIONS

Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death.

James 1:12-15

The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers. And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him.

Deuteronomy 8:1-6

Jesus is the true Israel, and He is also the true Adam, who refuses to eat the forbidden fruit and refuses to seize authority that has not been given to him. Jesus is the first of a new kind of Israel, and the first of a new sort of human, one that does not bow before Satan but rebukes him.

Peter Leithart

Jesus in the wilderness sets an example of resisting temptation by holding to the truth of God's Word even when we are at our weakest, our tireddest, our loneliest (because isn't it when we feel those things that sin becomes so much more, well, tempting?). But those 40 days mean something more for us. Christ's victory over Satan, in the wilderness weakness and then on the cross in ultimate weakness, is our victory too.

Through faith in him, we already have his record of perfect obedience given to us – even when we fail to obey our Father, even when we forget him.

Elyse Fitzpatrick

Jesus looks at the pain of hunger and thirst, and says, "that doesn't define the meaning of my life. My love, my loyalty, and my trust in the Father's Word is more real and more powerful than the circumstances of my life."

Collect for the Day

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

▼ PRELUDE

*Have mercy on me, oh God, according to your unfailing love, according to your great compassion,
Blot out my transgression, and wash away all my iniquities,
And cleanse me from my sin, for I know my transgression and my sin is always before me,
Against you, you only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in your sight,
So that you, you are proved right when you speak, and justified when you judge,
When you speak, and justified when you judge.*

▼ CONFESSION OF SIN

Leader: Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God together by praying— O LORD, deal not with us according to our sins;

People: Neither reward us according to our iniquities.

Unison: Merciful Father, who does not despise the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of those who are sorrowful;
Mercifully assist our prayers
which we make before you in all our troubles and adversities, whenever they oppress us; and graciously hear us,
that those evils which the craft and subtlety
of the devil or man works against us may,
by your good providence, be brought to nothing;
that we, your servants, being hurt by no persecutions,
may give thanks to you in your holy Church forever,
through Jesus Christ our LORD. Amen.

Please take a moment to silently confess your individual sins.

▼ Assurance of Pardon

Psalm 65:2–4

O you who hear prayer, to you all men will come. When we were overwhelmed by sins, you forgave our transgressions. Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts! We are filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple.

So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as he was from his journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” (For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, “How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?” (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.” The woman said to him, “Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock.” Jesus said to her, “Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water.”

Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.” The woman answered him, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You are right in saying, ‘I have no husband’; for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true.” The woman said to him, “Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship.” Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.” The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ). When he comes, he will tell us all things.” Jesus said to her, “I who speak to you am he.”

Leader: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

▲ CONFESSON OF FAITH

Unison: I believe, God of all gods, that you are the eternal Father of life;
I believe, God of all gods, that you are the eternal Father of love.
I believe, God of all gods, that you gave your Son in covenant for me.
I believe, God of all gods, that you purchased my soul
with the precious blood of your Son.
I believe, God of all gods, that you poured out on me
the Spirit of your grace.

▼ PRAYER

Please pray silently, joining in aloud at the Lord's Prayer.

Unison: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

▼ PROCLAMATION

Matthew 4:1-11

¹ Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ² And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³ And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” ⁴ But he answered, “It is written,

“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.”

⁵ Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple ⁶ and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written,

“He will command his angels concerning you,”

and

“On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.”

⁷ Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

⁸ Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹ And he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to him, “Be gone, Satan! For it is written,

“You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.”

¹¹ Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

▲ THE LORD'S SUPPER

Pastor: The Lord be with you!

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts!

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

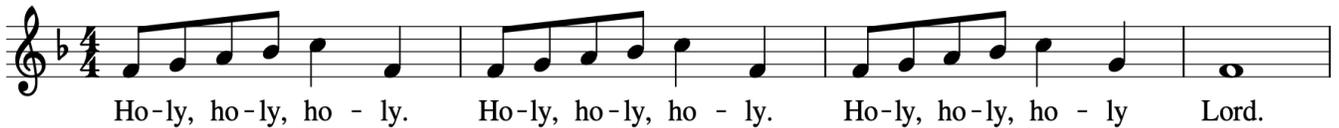

Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

People: It is right to give him our thanks and praise.

Pastor: It is a right, good, proper, and joyful thing, at all times, and in all places to give you thanks, Lord God. We join our voices with the angels and archangels and all the company of heaven who forever sing:

▲ Sanctus

Pastor: Let us proclaim the mystery of the faith:

People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again. Hallelujah!

Pastor: Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed for us. Hallelujah!

People: Therefore, let us keep the feast.

Pastor: The gifts of God for the people of God.

▼ Invitation and Prayer

Pastor: This Table is a place of nourishment for followers of Jesus Christ.

All baptized Christians who trust in Christ alone, are in good standing with a church that embraces the Gospel, live at peace with their neighbor, and seek strength to live more faithfully are welcome to eat this meal with us. But examine yourself, for Scripture reminds us that whoever eats the Bread or drinks the Cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the Body and Blood of the Lord. And while none of us are worthy apart from Christ, to even gather up the crumbs from this Table, we eagerly eat this meal with faith in Christ and gratitude to God for his salvation.

Unison: We do not presume to come to your Table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your great mercies. Amen.

▼ Words of Institution

Pastor: And it was in mercy towards us that our heavenly Father gave his only Son to suffer death on the Cross for our redemption.

As it is written: On the night Christ was betrayed he took Bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” Then in the same way, after supper Jesus took the Cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

▼ Coming to the Table

You will be invited forward up the center aisle and you will return down the outside aisle. If you are unable to come to the front to take communion, remain in your seat and it will be brought to you. The bread is homemade and gluten free. Wine is in the clear cups and grape juice is in the purple cups.

If you are not eating the Supper with us today, you may come forward with your hands clasped together to receive prayer, or you may spend this time in prayer at your seat using the communion prayers printed in the back of the bulletin. We welcome our children to come forward to the Table for prayer (see Children and Communion at the back of this order of worship).

Please hold the bread and the cup until invited to eat and drink.

Pastor: as far as the east is from the west,

Pastor: As a father has compassion for his children,

Pastor: For he knows our frame;
People: he remembers that we are dust.

Wheatland Missionary Spotlight

Dr. Kelsey Kreyche

You are invited to pray for one of our members, Dr. Kelsey Kreyche, who will be serving at Hospital Loma De Luz in Honduras Feb 18 -March 12, May 12-28, and Aug 4 -27. At this local Christian hospital that partners with Samaritan's Purse, Kelsey will serve as a physician alongside Honduran and ex-pat providers. Her role will include care for inpatients, outpatients, ER/Trauma, and night coverage. She will also serve as a Consultant and Educator to the local physicians, which invests into this community beyond her length of stay. Her hope is that God will use these trips to further His Kingdom work and enrich her love for the Lord.

How to pray for Kelsey:

- Pray for God's continued work in using Hospital Loma De Luz as a means of the love and ministry of Jesus Christ in Honduras.
- Supply chain is constantly vulnerable to political changes, regional powers (narcos), and international influences. While we have historically operated despite this, disruptions are more frequent so we are trying to source more from WITHIN Honduras. Pray for these new sources, relationships, and resources we must import.
- With rainy season ending, Hospital LDL will host many visiting medical missionaries this spring/summer. Pray that local and foreign missionaries will be filled with the grace of God, spiritual encouragement, and holiness.
- God's continued favor on the many logistics, Kelsey's health, and her partnership as a physician at Hospital LDL.

If you would like to receive email prayer updates, please email Kelsey.kreyche@gmail.com.

Communion Prayers

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, compelling, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Trusting that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior. Amen.

Children and Communion

Our baptized children are covenant children of our church, a rich part of our life together at Wheatland, and we long to see them eating with us at the Table. As a denomination (Presbyterian Church in America), we do not practice giving communion to children before they profess their faith to the Elders of our church and undertake the obligations and duties of a communing member. However, it is a deep joy to gather them with us at this Table so that we might pray for them. Our prayer is that they will grow in their faith and love of Jesus and his gospel and in due time will profess their faith publicly to our Elders and join us to eat this meal of grace.
