Describe Dorie's upbringing. What were some of the hardships she faced as a young girl? What do you think she may have been tempted to think about God with this childhood?

Describe how Dorie was introduced to the Gospel. How did her knowledge of God and his word help her in her trials as a teenager? What were some ways she grew in maturity?

Dorie lived in several foster homes with people who claimed to be Christians. How did God work in her life during this time? How can true Christians make an impact in foster care?

Describe how Dorie became interested in missions? What were some of the sacrifices they were required to make that many missionaries today don't have to consider? What were some of the hardships she faced on the mission field?

Look up Darlene Deibler Rose. She wrote a book called "Evidence Not Seen" Why do you think she was an encouragement to Dorie? How did God use their friendship in Dorie's life?

On Page 148, Dorie gives advice for those struggling with bitterness and forgiveness. What does she say?

What is Dorie's advice to those battling depression?

How is Christ glorified in Dorie's life? What do we learn about the character of God from reading Dorie's biography?
