Dear Church Family, Thank you so much for your incredible generosity in supporting me through the Mason/Parker Scholarship! Sharing my first semester at the University of South Carolina I the Darla Moore School of Business is such an exciting milestone, and your blessing makes a world of difference as I pursue my goals. Your kindness means so much to me, and I feel deeply grateful to be part of a church community that surrounds its members with such continuous support and care. Thank you, Maci Kimpton

Sermon: 'For Marvelous Love and Miracle Mercy
November 1st, 2026

READ
Scripture: Psalm 107 (selections from MSG)
1-3 Oh, thank God—he's so good!
His love never runs out.
All of you set free by God, tell the world!
Tell how he freed you from oppression,
Then rounded you up from all over the place,
from the four winds, from the seven seas.

21-22 So thank God for his marvelous love,
for his miracle mercy to the children he loves;
Offer thanksgiving sacrifices,
tell the world what he's done—sing it out!

Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet. And a light unto my path.

REFLECT
Write down any thoughts or ideas to guide you this week:

Consider:

- How has God saved you from sin and chaos, fed you, freed you, healed you, rescued you? How can you thank God for marvelous love and miracle mercy?
- How has a 'saint' that you know demonstrated what it means to be a 'living thank you note' for you?

RESPOND
Write a Thank You Note (your own Psalm of Thanksgiving) for God's 'marvelous love & miracle mercy', using John Kralik's recommendations (365 Thank Yous, pg 213):

- Mention the gift itself
- A sentence of two explaining how the gift is changing your life
- Maybe mention something you had forgotten to thank the person for in the past
- Mention the importance of his/her friendship

Do this each week based on each week's Psalm—place in a 'Thanks' jar (blessings jar) of your own. Make a copy and bring with you on Nov 22nd along with your pledge card: the Ark of the Covenant will be our Church Thanks Jar
