October is Pastor Appreciation Month!

October is Pastor Appreciation Month – a time to thank Pastor Jonathan for his service to LSUMC. His responsibilities extend far beyond preaching two sermons each Sunday: he plans worship, conducts weddings and funerals, leads Bible studies, provides pastoral care, welcomes new and prospective members, participates in administrative committee meetings, supervises staff, develops lay leadership, provides direction for the ministries of the church, and stays connected to the S.C. UMC Conference and district events. In a church as large and active as LSUMC, this is a tall order! We can show our gratitude not only by thanking Pastor Jonathan during October, but also throughout the year by praying for him, supporting his ministry, and encouraging him to practice self-care and take time away from his duties. Thank you, Pastor Jonathan, for all you do for LSUMC!

After the Amen

Series: On a Mission from God
Sermon: 'Pray for Harvest Hands'
October 11th, 2026

READ

Scripture: Matthew 9:25 - 10:1 (MSG)

Then Jesus made a circuit of all the towns and villages. He taught in their meeting places, reported kingdom news, and healed their diseased bodies, healed their bruised and hurt lives. When he looked out over the crowds, his heart broke. So confused and aimless they were, like sheep with no shepherd. "What a huge harvest!" he said to his disciples. "How few workers! On your knees and pray for harvest hands!" The prayer was no sooner prayed than it was answered. Jesus called twelve of his followers and sent them into the ripe fields. He gave them power to kick out the evil spirits and to tenderly care for the bruised and hurt lives.

Jesus is the Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God!

REFLECT

Write down any thoughts or ideas to guide you this week:

Consider:

- How has Jesus healed your 'bruised and hurt' life? Physically, Mentally, Emotionally, Socially?
- How is Jesus calling you to help Him heal bruised and hurt lives, to help him mend the universe?

RESPOND

*Cast out, O Christ, cast far away the demons that destroy:
the haunting dreads that choke our souls, the hates that stifle joy.
Our raging griefs, our jealous fears, are Legion in their name.
Our shackled hearts implore your grace to loose our binding shame.
Once long ago, from Galilee, you sailed to storm-tossed shores.
And still, in power, you brave new paths to breach our bolted doors.
Your Word breathes life and health and hope that break through evil's thrall
You send us, strengthened, home in peace to live your gospel call.
So come, O Christ and cast away the demons that destroy.
Transform our lives to sense your love and spread abroad your joy. ('Cast Out, O Christ' by Mary Louise Bringle)*
