Series: Three 'Simple' Rules
Sermon: 'Do No Harm'
September 13th, 2026

READ

Scripture: Matthew 22:36-40 (CEB)

³⁶ “Teacher, what is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

³⁷ He replied, “You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, and with all your mind. ³⁸ This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹ And the second is like it: You must love your neighbor as you love yourself. ⁴⁰ All the Law and the Prophets depend on these two commands.”

Galatians 5:13-15 (MSG)

It is absolutely clear that God has called you to a free life. Just make sure that you don't use this freedom as an excuse to do whatever you want to do and destroy your freedom. Rather, use your freedom to serve one another in love; that's how freedom grows. For everything we know about God's Word is summed up in a single sentence: Love others as you love yourself. That's an act of true freedom. If you bite and ravage each other, watch out—in no time at all you will be annihilating each other, and where will your precious freedom be then?

The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God!

REFLECT

Write down any thoughts or ideas to guide you this week:

Consider these questions:

- From Bishop Job: Do others look at us and see God at work in our life together? Is our way of living life-giving rather than life-draining? Is our way of living one that will enhance the quality of life of each of us?
- From John 8 & John Wesley: When have you received Mercy? When have you offered Mercy? What stone in your hand do you need to let fall to the ground in order to 'go and sin no more'? What do you need to do to 'do no harm' and 'avoid evil of every kind'?

RESPOND

Do No Harm. Do Good. Stay in Love with God.
