

Current Series: One Hit Wonders

Every music fan knows the feeling — that one song that stops you in your tracks, moves something deep inside you, and stays with you long after it's over. Some artists only get one moment in the spotlight, but that moment is unforgettable.

This summer, we're gathering a team of one hit wonder experts. For six weeks, we're welcoming incredible guest speakers, each one bringing a single, dynamic message — a favorite passage, a word they've carried for years, a sermon they were born to preach. No series. No build-up. Just one powerful moment with God's Word.

One Hit Wonders. Six speakers. Six messages. All killer, no filler. Come and hear these gospel hits for the soul.

Don Williams - Fathering Like the Father.

Don Williams is husband of 40 years to Nancy, and dad of three adult kids, Landon, Makinsey, and Lyndsie. His claim to fame is the one Father's Day he didn't have any kids and the next Father's Day he had three (all biologically born to Nancy and him) and they aren't triplets.

Don was a pastor for 26 years before going to the Missionary Church US national office as Director of Operations where he has served for 8 years.

Don will be sharing his message "Fathering Like the Father." Come and learn about our heavenly Father while celebrating this special day.

And in honor of Father's Day ...

Why was the Bible so good at baseball? Because it had a lot of good pitches.

What's a pastor's favorite type of exercise? Cross training.

Why didn't they play cards on the Ark? Because Noah was standing on the deck.

What's a Christian dad's favorite type of pie? Shepherd's pie.

Why did Moses cross the Red Sea? To get to the other side.

How do angels greet each other? Halo there!

Verse of the Week

Since my youth, God, you have taught me,
and to this day
I declare your marvelous deeds.
Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, my God, till I declare your power to the next generation, your mighty acts to all who are to come.
