

Lenten Worship at Messiah: The Prayer Book Experiment. The Book of Common Prayer is a treasure whose riches can only be known through engaging them; the Book of Common Prayer can only be experienced by praying it.

Notes for Lent V: We continue to use those red Prayer Books in the pew racks, and the Blue hymnals. If you arrive early, I invite you to familiarize yourselves with these resources. We will also follow the standard rubric in Anglican worship: Stand to sing and profess; sit to listen; and kneel to pray. Your clergy will guide you, as together we pray our great inheritance of faith! On this Fifth Sunday of Lent we will continue with Rite II, the “Contemporary Language” Holy Communion using Prayer C, with Prayer C on Palm Sunday as well. Our Prayer Book survey will conclude on Easter Sunday with Rite II Holy Communion and Prayer D. All prayed from the Book of Common Prayer. I will also say Morning Prayer on the Mondays of Lent on our YouTube channel.

Holy Week Services:

Monday, March 25th, 7pm: Spoken Stations of the Cross.

Tuesday, March 26th, 7pm: Sung Stations of the Cross.

Wednesday, March 27th, 7pm: Youth led Evening Prayers

Thursday, March 28th, 7pm: Maundy Thursday

Friday, March 29th, Noon: Spoken Good Friday liturgy

Friday, March 29th, 7pm: Sung Good Friday liturgy

Saturday, March 30th, 7pm: Easter Vigil & Solemn Holy Eucharist

Sunday, March 31st, 8:30 & 11am: Easter Sunday Worship Sunday

March 31st, 12:30pm: Easter Pot Luck Brunch

Yours in keeping a Holy Lent,

Rev. Dave+