

ALL SAINTS

“When people go through suffering, their lives are often transformed, deepened, marked with beauty and holiness, in remarkable ways that could never have been anticipated before the suffering. So, instead of continuing to focus on preventing suffering— which we simply won’t be very successful at anyway— perhaps we should begin entering the suffering, participating insofar as we are able— entering the mystery and looking around for God.”

- Eugene Peterson

Sunday Schedule

10:00 Worship

Welcome to worship at All Saints! We are really glad to have you with us for worship today. Whether you have been a Christian for many years, are trying to sort out what the Christian faith is all about, or are just here as a favor to your friend, we're thrilled to have you as our guest.

Nursery for Ages 0-4: We have a safe and fun nursery located in the orchestra room near the gym. We use a Kid Check program for security.

Psalm 118:1, 5-6, 14, 29

ORDER OF WORSHIP

October 17, 2021 | Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost

Call to Worship

Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;

for his love endures forever!

Out of my distress I called on the LORD;
the LORD answered me and set me free.

The LORD is on my side; I will not fear.
What can man do to me?

The LORD is my strength and my song;

COME PRAISE AND GLORIFY OUR GOD

TIM CHESTER, BOB KAUFMAN, 2011

1. Come praise and glo - ri - fy our God, the Fa - ther of our Lord.
2. Come praise and glo - ri - fy our God, who gives his grace in Christ.
3. Come praise and glo - ri - fy our God, for we've be - lieved the Word.

In Christ, he has in heav'n - ly realms, his bless - ing on us poured.
In him our sins are washed a - way re - deemed through sac - ri - fice.
And through our faith we have a seal, the Spir - it of the Lord.

For pure and blame - less in his sight he des - tined us to be
In him God has made known to us the myst' - ry of his will,
The Spir - it guar - an - tees our hope un - til re - demp - tion's done, and now we've been a - dopt - ed through his Son e - ter - nal - ly.

that Christ should be the head of all, his pur - pose to ful - fill.
un - til we join in end - less praise to God, the Three in One.

To the praise of your glo - ry, to the praise of your mer - cy and grace.

To the praise of your glo - ry, you are the God who saves!

Opening Prayer

Confession of Faith – from The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell. *
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

*While Jesus didn't literally descend to hell, he did endure the torment of hell on the cross and remained under the power of death until his resurrection.

universal

(You are invited to confess your sins silently.)

Confession of Sin

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

THE LORD IS MY SALVATION

KEITH & KRISTYN GETTY, NATHAN NOCKLES, JONAS MYRIN, 2016

The grace of God has reached for me, and pulled me
My hope is hid - den in the Lord, he flow'rs each
And when I reach my fi - nal day, he will not from the rag-ing sea. And I am safe on this sol - id ground:

pro - mise of his Word. When win - ter fades, I know spring will come.
leave me in the grave. But I will rise, he will call me home:

The Lord is my sal - va - - - tion.
The Lord is my sal - va - - - tion.
The Lord is my sal - va - - - tion. To Chorus

I will not fear when dark - ness falls, his strength will
In times of wait - ing, times of need, when I know help me scale these walls. I'll see the dawn of the ris - ing sun:

loss, when I am weak. I know his grace will re - new these days:

The Lord is my sal - va - - - tion.
The Lord is my sal - va - - - tion.

Who is like the Lord our God? Strong to save, faith - ful in love.

My debt is paid and the vic-t'ry won: The Lord is my sal-va - tion.

The Lord is our sal - va - - - - tion. _____

Offering

The offering is part of our regular worship. Our goal is that all gifts offered will come from an understanding that we give because God first gave to us, and that every penny will be carefully and thoughtfully invested in cultivating faith in Jesus Christ. Visit our website (allsaintspca.org) to give online or text GIVE to 208-591-8044 and follow the instructions that are texted in reply.

Prayers for the Church and World

Passing of the Peace

As recipients of God’s grace, we gladly receive peace from him. Traditionally, Christians have greeted one another during this time in the service with the phrase, “The peace of Christ be with you,” but you can also simply say, “Peace be with you.”

Genesis 43

Now the famine was severe in the land. 2 And when they had eaten the grain that they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, “Go again, buy us a little food.” 3 But Judah said to him, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ 4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. 5 But if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.’” 6 Israel said, “Why did you treat me so badly as to tell the man that you had another brother?” 7 They replied, “The man questioned us carefully about ourselves and our kindred, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?’ What we told him was in answer to these questions. Could we in any way know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’” 8 And Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the boy with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones. 9 I will be a pledge of his safety. From my hand you shall require him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. 10 If we had not delayed, we would now have returned twice.”

11 Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: take some of the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry a present down to the man, a little balm and a little honey, gum, myrrh, pistachio nuts, and almonds. 12 Take double the money with you. Carry back with you the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight. 13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man. 14 May God Almighty grant you mercy before the man, and may he send back your other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.”

15 So the men took this present, and they took double the money with them, and Benjamin. They arose and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make ready, for the men are to dine with me at noon.” 17 The man did as Joseph told him and brought the men to Joseph’s house. 18 And the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph’s house, and they said, “It is because of the money, which was replaced in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may assault us and fall upon us to make us servants and seize our donkeys.” 19 So they went up to the steward of Joseph’s house and spoke with him at the door of the house, 20 and said, “Oh, my lord, we came down the first time to buy food. 21 And when we came to the lodging place we opened our sacks, and there was each man’s money in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. So we have brought it again with us, 22 and we have brought other money down with us to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.” 23 He replied, “Peace to you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has put treasure in your sacks for you. I received your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them. 24 And when the man had brought the men into Joseph’s house and given them water, and they had washed their feet, and when he had given their donkeys fodder, 25 they prepared the present for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present that they had with them and bowed down to him to the ground. 27 And he inquired about their welfare and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?" 28 They said, "Your servant our father is well; he is still alive." And they bowed their heads and prostrated themselves. 29 And he lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? God be gracious to you, my son!" 30 Then Joseph hurried out, for his compassion grew warm for his brother, and he sought a place to weep. And he entered his chamber and wept there. 31 Then he washed his face and came out. And controlling himself he said, "Serve the food." 32 They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. 33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth. And the men looked at one another in amazement. 34 Portions were taken to them from Joseph's table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank and were merry with him.

Community Group Questions

1. Comparing verses 1-2 with 11-14 and discuss the following...
 - How does God use our needs to draw us back to him?
 - What do Jacob's desperate gifts and despairing words (11-14) tell us about life in a fallen world?
2. How does Judah's pledge represent an attempt to solve his sin without admitting it? How do we do that?
3. What other ways do we see Joseph's brothers managing our sin and repenting from it.
4. What was the brothers' first reaction to Joseph's kindness?
5. How does the servant's assurance echo the Gospel promises?
6. How do we use God's provision to avoid our need for his grace?
7. How does God show us kindness despite our partial or feigned repentance?

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is the family meal of Christians. We invite all baptized followers of Jesus Christ who acknowledge their sins against God and their neighbors, and confess their need for the grace of Christ to partake of this meal. If you are a Christian and haven't been baptized, please talk with one of our pastors. We would be honored to baptize you.

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Prayer

To you I come, a sinner poor
And wait for mercy at your door
Indeed, I've nowhere else to flee
O God, be merciful to me.

To you I come, a sinner weak,
And scarce know how to pray or speak.
From fear and weakness set me free,
O God, be merciful to me.

Father, we invite you to inhabit our hearts now as we take communion. As we share this meal, come bind us together as one family, filled with Your love.

Thank You Lord for Your grace that is at work in our lives.

Amen.

Communion

Just as the climax of all history will be the Wedding Supper of the Lamb, we conclude our worship in the presence of God by feasting. The Spirit takes the common elements of bread and wine and feeds us spiritually with the body and blood of Jesus, for our nourishment and growth in grace, and so strengthens us to be sent out into the world as God's agents of his generous hospitality.

ALL SAINTS COMMUNITY GROUPS

• WHY JOIN A COMMUNITY GROUP?

As a church we value authentic relationships that result from God's overflowing grace. In turn we desire to share and partake with one another the abundant love that comes from our TRIUNE God. Community groups are a tangible way to walk and live out our faith in Christ TOGETHER remembering the promises of scripture. It is a place of vulnerability, prayer, and dedication to the way of Christ as we exercise our spiritual gifts for the sake of each other. Simply put, All Saints values Community Groups; consider joining one today!

• HOW DO I JOIN A GROUP?

Contact either Kevin Heer (kheer@allsaintspca.org) OR Isaac Choules (ichoules@allsaintspca.org); Kevin and Isaac will help you find a group OR start a group. It is our desire as a church for everyone attending All Saints to be in community and share in God's goodness throughout the week. If you are interested in exercising your gift of hospitality in hosting a group, please let Kevin or Isaac know!

• WHERE DO GROUPS MEET?

Pastor Phil	location – TBD	Tuesday nights
Heer's & Wescott's	Eagle	Sunday evenings
Woods'	Eagle	Sunday after church
Choules'	Meridian	Sunday after church
Winkel's	Star	Wednesday

• WHAT DO I/WE STUDY?

Each week discussion questions are provided for groups to continue meditation and discussion on Sunday's sermon. However, groups can choose any topic that helps them follow the way of Christ together!

How Do I Connect at All Saints?

give us seven

Worship is the key to our life together. To get to know us better, we ask that you “Give Us Seven.” Join us for seven Sundays over the course of a couple months. In doing so, you’ll come to learn who we are and what we believe, and experience the mission to which God has called us: to proclaim the excellencies of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

meet with us

If you’re interested in meeting with a pastor, we’d love to buy you coffee and get to know you. Getting to know long-time members is another great way to know about us, and to be known. Please see contact info on the previous pages.

serve others

While worship is the heartbeat of our community, we know that to grow in the Christian faith you must experience the gospel in the context of the family of Christ, namely in a Community Group. We encourage everyone to join a Community Group, our primary means of connection and pastoral care, and get involved in a Ministry Team.

join the community

God builds his kingdom through his people. Your gifts, talents, and resources are needed at All Saints, not only to support what God is doing in our church, but also to spread the message of the gospel throughout our city.
