

ALL SAINTS

“If man had his way, the plan of redemption would be an endless and bloody conflict. In reality, salvation was bought not by Jesus’ fist, but by his nail-pierced hands; not by muscle but by love; not by vengeance but by forgiveness; not by force but by sacrifice. Jesus Christ our Lord surrendered in order that he might win; he destroyed his enemies by dying for them and conquered death by allowing death to conquer him.”

Confession of Sin

Gracious Heavenly Father, we acknowledge this day that you are the Giver of every good and perfect gift, and the Sustainer of our lives.

We humbly come before you, recognizing the presence of sin in our hearts, and knowing that you have graciously given your Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to pay the price and bear the penalty for our sin.

We confess our sin before you now, and gratefully accept your full and complete pardon.

Free us to worship you now in Spirit and Truth, with joy and celebration, and tune our hearts and fit our lives to live to the praise of your glory and the advancement of your Kingdom.

(You are invited to confess your sins silently.)

Assurance of Pardon

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Offering & Benevolence Offering

The offering is part of our regular worship. Our goal is that all gifts offered will come from an understanding that we give because God first gave to us, and that every penny will be carefully and thoughtfully invested in cultivating faith in Jesus Christ. Visit our website (allsaintspca.org) to give online or text GIVE to 208-591-8044 and follow the instructions that are texted in reply.

Prayers for the Church and World

Passing of the Peace

As recipients of God's grace, we gladly receive peace from him. Traditionally, Christians have greeted one another during this time in the service with the phrase, "The peace of Christ be with you," but you can also simply say, "Peace be with you."

Sermon

Luke 10:1-24

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. 2 And he said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. 3 Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. 4 Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. 5 Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house!’ 6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. 7 And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. 8 Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. 9 Heal the sick in it and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ 10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, 11 ‘Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.’ 12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

13 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you. 15 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades.

16 “The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me.”

17 The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!” 18 And he said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

21 In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. 22 All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

23 Then turning to the disciples he said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! 24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.”

Communion

Just as the climax of all history will be the Wedding Supper of the Lamb, we conclude our worship in the presence of God by feasting. The Spirit takes the common elements of bread and wine and feeds us spiritually with the body and blood of Jesus, for our nourishment and growth in grace, and so strengthens us to be sent out into the world as God's agents of his generous hospitality.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is the family meal of Christians. We invite all baptized followers of Jesus Christ who acknowledge their sins against God and their neighbors, and confess their need for the grace of Christ to partake of this meal. If you are a Christian and haven't been baptized, please talk with one of our pastors. We would be honored to baptize you.

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Quarterly Benevolence Offering - Today

The Mercy Ministry of All Saints is overseen by our Diaconate. It is supported by our quarterly benevolence offering, we will be collecting today. There is an option on our website's Give page to give directly to this, or you can write "benevolence" in the memo line and mail or drop off a check to the church office.

Our first priority is to help those in need in our congregation. Our second is to help those in need in our community. Please contact Warren Bean or any of the deacons if you need help with food and/or basic commodities or if you would like to share those types of items or the transport thereof with others.

How Do I Connect at All Saints?

give us seven

Worship is the key to our life together. To get to know us better, we ask that you “Give Us Seven.” Join us for seven Sundays over the course of a couple months. In doing so, you’ll come to learn who we are and what we believe, and experience the mission to which God has called us: to proclaim the excellencies of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

meet with us

If you’re interested in meeting with a pastor, we’d love to buy you coffee and get to know you. Getting to know long-time members is another great way to know about us, and to be known. Please see contact info on the previous pages.

serve others

While worship is the heartbeat of our community, we know that to grow in the Christian faith you must experience the gospel in the context of the family of Christ, namely in a Community Group. We encourage everyone to join a Community Group, our primary means of connection and pastoral care, and get involved in a Ministry Team.

join the community

God builds his kingdom through his people. Your gifts, talents, and resources are needed at All Saints, not only to support what God is doing in our church, but also to spread the message of the gospel throughout our city.
