

Andy Glascott

Director of Youth Ministries

Andy is an Irishman who sounds English after living in England for 18 years before moving to Williamsburg in 2014. All of those 18 years were spent in full-time youth ministry after growing up volunteering in Irish Methodism. He's a keen photographer, and after playing field hockey for 30+ years "over there", now also passes on his love for and knowledge of the game to students at Lafayette High School over here. Married to Amie they share their home with two cats and his ever-expanding Lego collection.
