The Colors of Christmas

Join us this Sunday, December 9, 6:30 p.m. as the children's choirs present, The Colors of Christmas.

The Pastor's Corner

This week's title for Christ is a hard one. We will look at the "Everlasting Father." Clearly this is a messianic title and therefore refers to Jesus. So, how can He be the Everlasting Father? Good question! I am so glad you asked. I hope you will be here this Sunday as we explore the answer to your very interesting question. Keep your focus on Jesus!

Sunday School Classes

This project is to buy gifts for kids who have one or both parents in prison. Talk to your parents to see if it would be possible for your family to buy a gift for one of these kids. A list of names and requested gifts will be made available in Sunday School. Pick from the list to determine the gift you will be responsible to buy. Buy the gift and bring it with you on Sunday, December 16. (DO NOT WRAP IT.) Sunday, December 16, from 12:00 - 4:00 p.m. we will meet in the Fellowship Hall, where we will eat together and wrap the gifts. Once that is complete, we will deliver the gifts to the homes of these kids. A signed permission slip will be required to participate in the wrapping and delivery party. If you or your parents have questions, give Jeanna a call at 847-2965.

Cancellation policy for Wednesday evening services:

If Cassville schools are in session we will have services. If schools are dismissed early or all day due to weather, we will be dismissed too.

Needed for Upward

If you have any gently worn basketball shoes that you don't need, we would appreciate the opportunity to gift them to children in our Upward basketball league. These would be tennis shoes with good ankle support, not low tops. Each year we see at least a few kids who don't have good shoes to wear to play basketball and we want to help these kids have a good experience. At the end of the season we will pass any shoes we have on to the Bright Futures program at school. If you would like to donate, please drop them by the Family Life Center.
