Use of Cookies

The website may use technical cookies (small pieces of information which the server sends to the computer of the person accessing the page) to perform specific functions which are considered essential for the correct operation and visualisation of the website. The cookies are used temporarily for the sole purpose of making browsing more efficient and disappear when the user ends the session. In any case, these cookies provide personal data by themselves and shall not be used to collect the data.

Through the use of cookies, it is also possible for the server where the website is located to recognise the browser used by the user in order to make browsing easier, allowing, for example, the access of users who have previously registered to the areas, services, promotions or contests reserved exclusively for them without having to register for each visit. They can also be used to measure the audience, traffic parameters, control the progress and number of entries, etc., being in these cases technically dispensable cookies but beneficial for the user. This website shall not install dispensable cookies without the prior consent of the user.

This site uses analytical cookies (_ga or _utm) owned by Google Analytics, persisting for 2 years, to improve our services by analyzing browsing habits. Any user who visits the site is informed of the use of this cookie by means of a floating banner requesting consent for installation. If its use is accepted, the banner will disappear, although at any time you can revoke the consent and obtain more information by consulting our Cookies Policy.

The user can configure their browser to be alerted of the reception of cookies and to prevent their installation on their computer. Please consult your browser instructions for more information.

Link Policy

From the website, you may be redirected to content from third-party websites. Given that the DATA CONTROLLER cannot always control the content introduced by third parties in their respective websites, they do not assume any type of responsibility with respect to said content. In any case, the administrator shall proceed to the immediate withdrawal of any content which may contravene national or international legislation, morality or public order, proceeding to the immediate removal of the link to said website, bringing the content in question to the attention of the competent authorities.

The DATA CONTROLLER is not liable for the information and stored content, by way of example but not limited to, in forums, chats, blog developers, comments, social networks or any other means that allow third parties to publish content independently on the website of the DATA CONTROLLER. However, and in compliance with the provisions of articles 11 and 16 of the LSSICE, it is made available to all users, authorities and security forces, collaborating actively in the withdrawal or, where appropriate, blocking of all those contents which may affect or contravene national or international legislation, the rights of third parties or morality and public order. In the event that the user considers that there is any content on the website which could be susceptible to this classification, they are asked to notify the website administrator immediately.

This website has been reviewed and tested in order to work properly. The correct operation can usually be guaranteed 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. However, the DATA CONTROLLER does not rule out the possibility of certain programming errors, or causes of force majeure, natural disasters, strikes or similar circumstances occurring, which make it impossible to access the website.

IP addresses

Website servers will be able to automatically detect the IP address and domain name used by the user. An IP address is a number automatically assigned to a computer when it connects to the Internet. All of this information is recorded in a duly registered server activity file which allows subsequent data processing for the sole purpose of obtaining statistical information on the number of page impressions, the number of visits made to the web servers, the order of visits, points of access, etc.

4 APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

For the resolution of all disputes or issues related to this website or the activities developed therein, Spanish legislation shall apply, to which the parties expressly submit, the Courts and Tribunals closest to Madrid being competent to resolve all disputes arising from or related to its use.
