

CHANGING PATHS

Post Summer 2016 | Volume 14 Issue 7

left: A group from King of Kings Lutheran Church in Cedar Rapids showing their Chinese calligraphy with teachers Lily and Olivia. center: The girls pose at Mission Central in Mapleton, Iowa, where we were blessed with another opportunity to share. right: A common, but entirely special scene that we enjoyed being a part of this summer - meeting face to face with partners in ministry.

An encouraging invitation to stop by for a visit. A pleasant chat over a cup of coffee. Insightful questions during a presentation. Prayers for continued safety and fruit. Moments of happiness and celebration in both reunions and in first-time meetings. These are just a small handful of the overabundance of blessings of visiting the U.S. this summer during our bi-annual 'home service.' Many miles, homes, and churches greeted us in July and August and we are grateful for every experience. Our connections to you, some face to face, continue to fill us with joy and to strengthen us in this service as your partner in the Gospel. We cherish the time with you in the U.S. and are excited to be back in Asia with new challenges and opportunities for making known the love of Christ to those whom we serve and with whom we live.
