

September 2016

Dear Friend,

We want to express our deep gratitude to those of you who have given of your time, talent and treasure to help us. As Samuel Adams would say, you have enabled us to “light brush fires of freedom in the minds” of people across America and around the globe.

There is a growing army of compassionate believers wisely rising up in our nation. When we began our ministry decades ago there were only a few people in the nation with an understanding of our Christian History and Christ’s Gospel of Liberty. In contrast, at our ministry now we hear almost daily from friends who have been touched, revived, inspired and trained over the years through our teaching at hundreds of conferences, churches and through radio, TV, films and tours.

Yet, our national crisis looms before us and cries for a solution! Our new nation faced a similar crisis in the 1790s after winning the War of Independence. Churches had been burned by the British. Youth were leaving the faith under the influence of humanistic teaching at the colleges. Another war was pending, this time with France.

Governor Samuel Adams of Massachusetts called for a day of fasting and prayer. He called the people to pray to “the Supreme Ruler of the world that the rod of tyrants may be broken into pieces and the oppressed made free; that wars may cease in all the earth” ... and that “the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ may be everywhere established, and all people everywhere willingly bow to the scepter of Him who is Prince of Peace”. God answered their prayers. War was averted and the Second Great Awakening was spawned, launching the modern missionary movement that swept the liberating Gospel of Christ to Asia, Africa and South America.

Just as that great spiritual awakening began with prayer ages ago, so it can be today. It all starts with prayer, and because of that I want to urge you to do this one thing right now: Go to Pray31.com and order a 25-pack of the U.S. Prayer Atlas. The cost is not prohibitive. Give them to your family, friends, Sunday school class, small group, and especially to your pastor. I am honored to be the National Chairman of the Pray31 Initiative. It is all for the purpose of rallying one million Christian to pray for America from October 1st to 31st.

I hope you will do this. Believe me, this can make a difference! It will bless you, bless others, bless America, and even bless our ministry and enable us to reach even further in our mission of life-transforming Liberty.

Warmly in Christ,

Marshall Foster
