

St. Gabriel the Archangel Catholic Church 2020 Online Silent Auction

Instructions for participating in our online auction

The auction is open for viewing items now. You may bid on items beginning at 9am on Friday, September 4. The auction will conclude at 8pm on Sunday, September 13.

In order to participate, you must create an account for yourself. Go to the link below:

<https://www.charityauctionstoday.com/auctions/Festival-13668>

To create an account, click on the Register to Bid link in the upper right corner.

Enter your name, email address, create a password and click on Next. Your email address will be your username for signing into the auction. In the next window, enter a phone number and whether you want this phone number to be used for outbid text notifications. Click Next. In the next window, you can select either your email or phone number for the auction to send you notifications and click Next. A text message will be sent to the phone number you entered with a six digit code. Enter this code into the boxes, click Submit and you now have an account.

At this point you can view items in the auction, but in order to bid on items you will have to add your credit card information.

In addition to bidding on items, you may make a direct donation to St. Gabriel by clicking on the blue Make a Donation button in the upper right corner.

You can donate an item by clicking on the Donate Items buttons right under the Make a Donation button. Fill in the information for Donor Info and Item Info, and click Submit.

At the conclusion of the auction on Sunday, September 13, each winning bidder will receive an email invoice identifying the items
